In consideration of the leasing of said premises and of the mutual agreements herein contained, each party hereto does hereby expressly covenant and agree to and with the other, as follows:

EXHIBIT "A"

(1) The lessee accepts said lotting and agrees to pay to the order of the lessor the rentals above stated for the full term of this lease, in advance, at the times and in the manner aforesaid.

(2a) The lessee shall use said demised premises during the term of this lease for the conduct of the following business:

(2b) The lessee will not make any unlawful, improper or offensive use of said premises; he will not suffer any strip or waste thereof; he will not permit any objectionable noise or odor to escape or to be emitted from said premises or do anything or permit anything to be done upon or about said premises in any way tending to create a nuisance; he will not sell or permit to be sold any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors on said premises, excepting such as lessee may be licensed by law to sell and as may be herein expressly permitted.

(2c) The lessee will not allow the leased premises at any time to fall into such a state of repair or disorder as to increase the fire hazard thereon; he shall not install any power machinery on said premises except under the supervision and with written consent of the lessor; he shall not store gasoline or other highly combustible materials on said premises at any time; he will not use said premises in such a way or for such a purpose that the fire insurance rate on the building in which said premises are located is thereby increased or that would prevent the lessor from taking advantage of any rulings of any agency of the state in which said leased premises are situated or its successors, which would allow the lessor to obtain reduced premium rates for long term fire insurance policies.

(2d) Lessee shall comply at lessee's own expense with all laws and regulations of any municipal, county, state, federal or other public authority respecting the use of said leased premises.

UTILITIES

(3) The lessee shall pay for all heat, light, water, power, and other services or utilities used in the above demised premises during the term of this lease.

REPAIRS AND

It is understood and agreed that the lessor reserves and at any and all times shall have the right to alter, repair or improve the building of which said demised premises are a part, or to add thereto and for that purpose at any time may erect scaffolding and all other necessary structures about and upon the demised premises and lessor and lessor's representatives, contractors and workmen for that purpose may enter in or about the said demised premises with such materials as lessor may deem necessary therefor, and lessee waives any claim to damages, including loss of business resulting therefrom.

OVERLOADING OF FLOORS

(9) The lessee will not overload the floors of said premises in such a way as to cause any undue or serious stress or strain upon the building in which said demised premises are located, or any part thereof, and the lessor shall have the right, at any time, to call upon any competent engineer or architect whom the lessor may choose, to decide whether or not the floors of said premises, or any part thereof, are being overloaded so as to cause any undue or serious stress or strain on said building, or any part thereof, and the decision of said engineer or architect shall be final and binding upon the lessee; and in the event that the engineer or architect so called upon shall decide that in his opinion the stress or strain is such as to endanger or injure said building, or any part thereof, then and in that event the lessee agrees immediately to relieve said stress or strain either by reinforcing the building or by lightening the load which causes such stress or strain in a manner satisfactory to the lessor.

ADVERTISING

FIXTURES

(12) All partitions, plumbing, electrical wiring, additions to or improvements upon said leased premises, whether installed by the lessor or lessee, shall be and become a part of the building as soon as installed and the property of the lessor unless otherwise herein provided.

LIGHT AND AIR

(13) This lease does not grant any rights of access to light and air over the property.

DAMAGE BY CASUALTY, FIRE AND DUTY TO REPAIR

(14) In the event of the destruction of the building in which said leased premises are located by fire or other casualty, either party hereto may terminate this lease as of the date of said fire or casualty, provided, however, that in the event of damage to said building by fire or other casualty to the extent of 50 per cent or more of the sound value of said building, the lessor may or may not elect to repair said building; written notice of lessor's said election shall be given lessee within fifteen days after the occurrence of said damage; if said notice is not so given, lessor conclusively shall be deemed to have elected not to repair; in the event lessor elects not to repair said building, then and in that event this lease shall terminate with the date of said damage; but if the building in which said leased premises are located be but partially destroyed and the damage so occasioned shall not amount to the extent indicated above, or if greater than said extent and lessor elects to repair, as aforesaid, then the lessor shall repair said building with all convenient speed and shall have the right to take possession of and occupy, to the exclusion of the lessee, all or any part of said building in order to make the necessary repairs, and the lessee hereby agrees to vacate upon request, all or any part of said building which the lessor may require for the purpose of making necessary repairs, and for the period of time between the day of such damage and until such repairs have been substantially completed there shall be such an abatement of rent as the nature of the injury or damage and its interference with the occupancy of said leased premises by said lessee shall warrant; however, if the premises be but slightly injured and the damage so occasioned shall not cause any material interference with the occupation of the premises by said lessee, then there shall be no abatement of rent and the lessor shall repair said damage with all convenient speed.

WAIVER OF SUBROGATION RIGHTS

(15) Neither the lessor nor the lessee shall be liable to the other for loss arising out of damage to or destruction of the leased premises, or the building or improvement of which the leased premises are a part or with which they are connected, or the contents of any thereof, when such loss is caused by any of the perils which are or could be included within or insured against by a standard form of fire insurance with extended coverage, including sprinkler leakage insurance, if any. All such claims for any and all loss, however caused, hereby are waived. Such absence of liability shall exist whether or not the damage or destruction is caused by the negligence of either lessor or lessee or by any of their respective agents, servants or employees. It is the intention and agreement of the lessor and the lessee that the rentals reserved by this lease have been fixed in contemplation that each party shall fully provide his own insurance protection at his own expense, and that each party shall look to his respective insurance carriers for reimbursement of any such loss, and further, that the insurance carriers involved shall not be entitled to subrogation under any circumstances against any party to this lease. Neither the lessor nor the lessee shall have any interest or claim in the other's insurance policy or policies, or the proceeds thereof, unless specifically covered therein as a joint assured.

(16) In case of the condemnation or appropriation of all or any substantial part of the said demised premises by any public or private corporation under the laws of eminent domain, this lease may be terminated at the option of either party hereto on twenty days written notice to the other and in that case the lessee shall not be liable for any rent after the date of lessee's removal from the premises.

(19) Lessee shall have an option to renew this lease for a term of 5 years commencing upon the expiration of the original lease term. ATTACHMENT

HOLDING OVER

In the event the lessee for any reason shall hold over after the expiration of this lease, such holding over shall not be deemed to operate as a renewal or extension of this lease, but shall only create a tenancy from month to month which may be terminated at will at any time by the lessor.

ATTORNEY FEES AND COURT COSTS

In case suit or action is instituted to enforce compliance with any of the terms, covenants or conditions of this lease, or to collect the rental which may become due hereunder, or any portion thereof, the losing party agrees to pay such sum as the trial court may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fees to be allowed the prevailing party in such suit or action and in the event any appeal is taken from any judgment or decree in such suit or action, the losing party agrees to pay such further sum as the appellate court shall adjudge reasonable as prevailing party's attorney's fees on such appeal. The lessee agrees to pay and discharge all lessor's costs and expenses, including lessor's reasonable attorney's fees that shall arise from enforcing any provision or covenants of this lease even though no suit or action is instituted.

WAIVER

Any waiver by the lessor of any breach of any covenant herein contained to be kept and performed by the lessee shall not be deemed or considered as a continuing waiver, and shall not operate to bar or prevent the lessor from declaring a forfeiture for any succeeding breach, either of the same condition or covenant or otherwise.
