Now, therefore, if said mortgagor shall keep and perform the covenants herein contained and shall pay said note according to its terms, this conveyance shall be void, but otherwise shall remain in full force as a mortgage to secure the performance of all of said covenants and the payment of said note, it being agreed that a failure to perform any covenant herein, or if proceedings of any kind be taken to foreclose any lien on said premises or any part thereof, the mortgagee shall have the option to declare the whole amount unpaid on said note and on this mortgage at once due and payable; and this mortgage may be foreclosed at any time thereafter. In construing this mortgage it is understood that the mortgagor may be more than one person, that the mortgagee may be more than one corporation and that more than one note may be secured hereby; therefore, the parties hereto agree that if the context and the circumstances so require, the singular shall be taken to mean and include the plural and that the masculine pronoun shall mean and include the feminine as well as husband and wife.
