Klamath Falls, Oregon

I (or if more than one maker) we, jointly and severally, promise to pay to the order of JAMES W. WESLEY and SUSAN J. WESLEY, husband and wife, and BOBBY JOE GEORGE and BRENDA MARY GEORGE, husband and wife and upon the death of any of them, then to the order of the survivor of them, at

with interest thereon at the rate of 10.0% percent per annum from April 27, 1982 (see note below) **DOLLARS.

one installment at the dates and in the amounts as follows: This note becomes due and payable in full on April 27, 1987. **SPECIAL NOTE: If this note shall be paid in full within 3 years from above date, no interest will be added to the principal. If the note is not paid until after 3 years from the above date, principal plus interest from April 27, 1982, shall be paid.

balloon payments, if any, will not be refinanced; interest to be paid (see above note) and in addition to the payments above required; said payments shall continue until the whole sum hereof, principal and interest, has been paid; if any of said installments is not so paid, all principal and interest shall become immediately due and collectible at the option of the holder of this note. If this note is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, I/we promise and agree to pay the reasonable attorney's fees and collection costs of the holder hereof, and if suit or action is filed hereon, also promise to pay (1) holder's reasonable attorney's fees to be fixed by the trial court and (2) if any appeal is taken from any decision of the trial court, such further sum as may be fixed by the appellate court, as the holder's reasonable attorney's fees in the appellate court.

It is the intention of the parties hereto that the said payees do not take the title hereto as tenants in common but with the right of survivorship, that is: on the death of any of the payees, the right to receive payment of the then unpaid balance of principal and interest shall vest absolutely in the survivor of them.

* Strike words not applicable.
