Now, therefore, if said mortgagor shall keep and perform the covenants herein contained and shall pay said note according to its terms, this conveyance shall be void, but otherwise shall remain in full force as a mortgage to secure the performance of all of said covenants and the payment of said note; it being agreed that a failure to perform any covenant herein, or if proceedings of any kind be taken to foreclose on any lien on said premises or any part thereof, the mortgagee shall have the option to declare the whole amount unpaid on said note and on this mortgage at once due and payable, and this mortgage may be foreclosed at any time thereafter. And if the mortgagor shall fail to pay any taxes or charges of any lien, encumbrances or insurance premium as above provided for, the mortgagee may at his option do so, and any payment so made shall be added to and become a part of the debt secured by this mortgage, and shall bear interest at the same rate as said note without waiver, however, of any right arising to the mortgagee for breach of any sums so paid by the mortgagee.

Each and all of the covenants and agreements herein contained shall apply to and bind the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of said mortgagor and of said mortgagee respectively. In case suit or action is commenced to foreclose this mortgage, the court may, upon motion of the mortgagee, appoint a receiver to collect the rents and profits arising out of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure, and apply the same, first deducting all proper charges and expenses attending the execution of said trust, as the court may direct in its judgment or decree.

In construing this mortgage, it is understood that the mortgagor or mortgagee may be more than one person; that if the context so requires, the singular pronoun shall be taken to mean and include the plural, the masculine and the feminine and the neuter, and that generally all grammatical changes shall be made, assumed and implied to make the provisions hereof apply equally to corporations and to individuals.
