Vol. 83 Page 16053

September 16, 1983

We, Roy E. Clark and Helen Clark, husband and wife, do hereby will and bequeath our worldly goods as follows:

At the death of either one of us all possessions of the deceased shall become the property of the surviving spouse.

In the event that both of us die within a period of 15 days it should be considered as simultaneous death and our possessions are to be sold and after costs of selling, Personal Representative fees, and administrator fees are paid, the monies are to be divided equally to the children of Roy E. Clark and Helen Clark: namely,

Maria Clark, daughter of Roy E. Clark
Charles S. Clark, son of Roy E. Clark
Royce D. Clark, son of Roy E. Clark
James V. Davis, son of Helen Clark
Beverly J. Ensor, daughter of Helen Clark

It is our desire that the First Interstate Bank, Klamath Falls Branch be our Personal Representative and that Helen Clark's daughter Beverly Ensor be administrator.

Being of sound mind and body, we declare this to be our will.
