

THIS AGREEMENT made this 30th day of March, 1984, by and between GARY LEE BURBANK, husband, residing at Chemult, Oregon and BILLIE RUTH BURBANK, wife, residing at Chemult, Oregon, currently residing together in Chemult, Oregon.

Said parties have this day mutually agreed to the following. To wit:

- (1) that neither party shall borrow money in any amount exceeding One Dollar ($1.00) from any other person or institution without the express written permission from the other party; and,
- (2) that neither party shall incur or arrange any type of credit arrangement with any other person or institution without the express written permission from the other party; and,
- (3) that neither party shall engage in any type of financial transaction, however small the amount, the conduct of which would bring debt, embarrassment, legal proceedings, a reflection of dishonesty or loss of reputation of the other party.

Each party agrees the violation of this agreement by either party is a breach of faith in the spirit of the agreement and such violation in itself without other extending factors would be deemed valid grounds for separation or dissolution of marriage. Both parties agree that the party breaching this contract resulting in separation or divorce will waive all rights to community property whether real or personal other than the material personal items brought into the marriage prior to 16 September, 1978. The offended party shall retain all rights and goods acquired during the marriage and subsequent to 16 September, 1978.

Neither party is an attorney. This agreement was drafted by mutual consent. Both parties waive legal counsel before completion and signing of this agreement. However, this agreement, being mutually acceptable, shall bind both parties in it's entirety. If this agreement is in conflict with the accepted laws of marriage or community property, it shall take precedence by virtue of it's mutually accepted spirit and both parties rights to conduct their marriage as they deem proper.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have affix their signatures hereon.

Dated this 30TH day of MARCH, 1984.
