REPRETIES ON DEFAULT. In the event of a default, Seller may take any one or more of the following steps: Declare the entire the ance due on the Contract, including interest, imhediately due and payable,

Foreclose this Contract by suit in equity; (b)

- Specifically enforce the terms of this Contract by suit in equity: (2)
- Exercise the nights and remedies of a secured party as provided by the Uniform Commercial Code. Seller may exercise these rights and remedies with (d) respect to any part of the property which constitutes personal property in which Seller has a security interest.
- Choose to impose a late charge. The charge will not exceed five (5) cents per dollar of the payment in the event Buyer fails to make any payment within (e) 10 days after it is Jue.
- Declare this Contract to be void thirty (30) or more days after Seller gives written notice to Buyer of Seller's intention to do so, unless the performance 113 then due under this Contract is tendered or accomplished prior to the time stated. At the end of the thirty (30) days, all of Buyer's rights under this Contract shall cease without further act by Seller. Seiler shall then be entitled to immediate possession of the property. All payments previously made to Seller by Buyer may be kept by Seller as reasonable rental of the property up to the time of default.
- Appoint a receiver. Seller shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver as a matter of right. It does not matter whether or not the apparent value of the property exceeds the amount of the balance due on the Contract. Any receiver appointed may serve without bond. Employment by Seller shall not cisquality a person from serving as a receiver. Upon taking possession of all or any part of the property, the receiver may:
 - Use operate, manage, control, and conduct business on the property and make necessary expenditures for all maintenance and improvements that in the receiver's judgement are proper:
 - Collect all rents, revenues, income, issues, and profits from the property and apply such sums to the necessary expenses of use, operation,
 - Complete any construction in progress on the property, at Seller's option. To complete that construction, receiver may pay all bills, borrow funds, employ contractors, and make any changes in plans and specifications that Seller deems appropriate. If the revenues produced by the property are insufficient to pay expenses, the receiver may borrow, from Seller or otherwise, such sums as receiver deems necessary. These sums shall be used for the purposes stated in this paragraph. Repayment of such sums shall be secured by this Contract. Amounts borrowed from or advanced by Seller shall bear interest at the same rate as the balance on this Contract.
