Case No. 101250

JUDGEMENT

This matter having come on for Trial before the Honorable CLARKE C. BROWN, Circuit Court Judge, on the 20th day of September, 1982, on the issue of whether or not there was a partnership between the Plaintiff and Defendant DEMPSY D.

SULLIVAN, the Plaintiff being represented by ORLIN R. ANSON and ALBERT C. DEPENBROCK, and the Defendants being represented by MALCOLM BRAND and The Court having received evidence and argument from respective counsel, the Court found there to be no partnership and continued the matter for Trial on the issue of whether or not monies were owed one party to the other and the amount thereof. The Trial having resumed on February 7, 1984, the Court having received evidence and argument from respective counsel did render its decision finding that the Defendants owed the Plaintiff the net sum of TWENTY-TWO THOUSAND TWO HUNDRED FIFTEEN and 50/100 ($22,215.50) Dollars with interest thereon at
