NOTICE OF INVALID LIEN
AFFIDAVIT

PH 3 42
5
86 OCT
I, Ken E. Bailey, hereby declare that I am the husband of Dorothy G. Bailey. That Dorothy G. Bailey is a stroke victim and is incapable of reading or comprehending the "Notice of Federal Tax Lien" a copy of which is attached. She has not been served and is unaware of any notices or documents sent to her by the IRS. These have been intercepted by Ken Bailey and the information therein kept from her so as to protect her from any harrassment that will affect her health or wellbeing.

Ever since 1978 it has been a family policy to keep information from Dorothy that cause relapses which result in hospitalization.

I, Ken E. Bailey, declare on behalf of Dorothy Bailey, an inhabitant of the state of Oregon, that any Internal Revenue Service/ U.S. Treasurer/ U.S.A. lien against her or her property is invalid.

This instrument applies to any liens been filed by the IRS/USA/ Secretary of Treasury et al as affects Dorothy Bailey and the Concord Mobile Home she lives in for the following reasons to wit:

1. The Rights of Affiant as recognized and so stated by our forefathers in the Declaration of Independence, are unalienable.
2. The Right of Affiant to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects is recognized and so stated in the Fourth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution.
3. The Right of Affiant to be protected against ineffectual liens is recognized and so stated in the Fifth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution: in pertinent part-- "no person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law;"

Ch 2

4. The Rights of Affiant as recognized and so stated in the first ten Amendments to the U.S. Constitution are Rights because the first ten Amendments are known as the Bill of Rights (if the first ten Amendments were priviledges they would have been called The Bill Of Priviledges).

5. The I.R.S./Secretary of Treasury/ U.S.A., et al have failed to show that they have title to said described property.

6. The I.R.S./Secretary of Treasury/U.S.A., et al have failed to show that they have jurisdiction over the Affiant.

7. The affiant has not been served Judicial due process of law on this matter in a competent court of record to date.

The facts attested to herein are ultimate facts absent evidence to the contrary and there exists no evidence to the contrary. Hence any I.R.S./Secretary of Treasury/ U.S.A., et al lien against Affiant or his property is void.

This instrument is intended in Good Faith to protect, secure, and defend the Rights, Immunities, and property of Affiant.

This is to verify by Affiant that all statements contained herein are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief and upon information.

FURTHER AFFIANT SIETH NOUGHT.

On the back is a copy of the seizure and sale worksheet we have prepared showing the minimum bid price of property seized from you and how it was figured. The minimum bid price is the lowest amount we will accept for the property at our sale and is established to protect your interest in the property.

If you do not agree with the amount, you may request a professional appraiser, acceptable to you and the Internal Revenue Service, or a valuation engineer from the IRS, to reevaluate the price. The availability of IRS valuation engineers is limited, so if you request one but none is available, you will be notified. If the professional appraiser or valuation engineer recommends a value unacceptable to you or us, you or IRS may request the services of a second appraiser. We will then use both appraisals to refigure the value of the property. The minimum bid price cannot be more than your tax liability plus the expenses of sale; therefore, we cannot consider a request for reevaluation that conflicts with this condition.

The cost of services provided by appraisers will be made part of the expenses of levy and sale and added to your tax liability.

If we do not hear from you within 5 days from the date shown above, we will assume you agree with the established minimum bid price. If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown above.

Sincerely yours,

Jean Duncan
Revenue Officer
