default, any balance remaining in the reserve account shall be credited to the indebtedness. If the reserve account for taxes, assessments, insurance, and other charges is not sufficient at any time for the payment of such charges as they become due, the grantor shall pay the deficit of such charges on demand, and, if not paid within ten days after such demand, the beneficiary may at its option, the amount of such deficit to the principal of the obligation secured hereby.

Should the grantor

Should the grantor fail to keep any of the foregoing covenants, then the beneficiary may at its option carry out the same, and all expenditures therefor shall draw interest at the rate specified in the note, shall be repayable by the grantor on demand, and the beneficiary shall be secured in the lien of this deed by any improvements made on said premises and also to the discretion to complete property as in its sole discretion it may deem necessary, such repairs to be made.

[illegible]

The beneficiary will furnish to the grantor on written request thereof further statements of account but shall not be obliged to furnish the same if the grantor shall appear and in any action or proceeding in which this deed, and all said sums shall be secured by this trust.

It is mutually agreed that:

1. In the event that any portion or all of said property shall be taken or proceedings, to commence, prosecute in its own name, appeal in or defend any taking; and, to elects, to require that all or any portion of the money's to pay all reasonable costs, expenses that all or any portion of the money's incurred by the grantor in such proceedings, which are in excess of the amount necessarily paid or incurred by the beneficiary in such proceedings, and attorney's fee applied; unpaid or incurred by the beneficiary in such proceedings, and attorney's own expense, the indebtedness secured hereby in such proceedings, and attorney's necessary in obtaining such action.

At any time and from time to time upon written request of the beneficiary, payment of its fees and the liability of any person for endorsement (in case of full reconveyance, for cancellation), without map or plat of said property, for the payment of the indebtedness, the trustee may (a) consent to the making of any subdivision or other agreement affecting this deed or the lien or charge hereof; (c) reconvey to any persons legally entitled thereto; and the recitals therein of any matters or facts shall be conclusive of the truthfulness thereof. Trustee's fees for any of the services in this paragraph shall be such as may be agreed upon by the trustee and the grantor.

4. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits or the proceeds of fire and other insurance policies or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof, as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

5. The grantor shall notify beneficiary in writing of any sale or contract for sale of the above described property and furnish beneficiary on a form supplied it with such personal information concerning the purchaser as would ordinarily be required of a new loan applicant and shall pay beneficiary a service charge.

6. Time is of the essence of this instrument and upon default by the grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in performance of any agreement hereunder, the beneficiary may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable by delivery to the trustee of written notice of default and election to sell the trust property, which notice of default and election to sell, duly filed for record. Upon delivery of said notice of default and election to sell, the beneficiary shall deposit with the trustee this trust deed and all promissory notes and documents evidencing expenditures secured hereby, whereupon the trustee shall fix the time and place of sale and give notice thereof as then required by law.

7. After default and any time prior to five days before the date set by the Trustee for the Trustee's sale the grantor or other person so privileged may pay the entire amount then due under this trust deed and the obligations secured thereby (including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation and trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding the amount provided by law) other than such portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred and thereby cure the default.

8. After the lapse of such time as may then be required by law following the recording of said notice of default and giving of said notice of sale, the trustee shall sell said property at the time and place fixed by him in said notice of sale, either as a whole or in separate parcels, and in such order as he may determine, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States, payable at the time of sale. Trustee may postpone sale of all or any portion of said property by public announcement at such time and place of sale, and from time to time thereafter may postpone the sale by public announcement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, said grantor has hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.
