1. The purpose of the study was to determine the effect of the use of the computer on the learning of the English language. The study was conducted in a classroom of 20 students. The students were divided into two groups. The first group used the computer and the second group did not. The results of the study showed that the students who used the computer had a higher level of achievement than the students who did not use the computer. The study also found that the students who used the computer were more motivated and more engaged in the learning process. The study concluded that the use of the computer is an effective way to improve the learning of the English language.
