instrument "instituitur" "restitutio" §2. (Indicate which) In and must find the said property therein and hereinafter described was conveyed by said grantor to said grantee as well, among other things, the performance of certain obligations of the grantor to the said beneficiary. The said grantor therefore obligated in his performance of the obligations wound by and must find as stated in the notice of default heretofore mentioned and such default will exist at the time of the said instrument described.

The content of said default, the name and holder of the obligation secured by said note then being the beneficiary thereon named, or his successor in interest, included all sums so secured immediately due and owing, a notice of default containing as aforesaid all the said real property and as aforesaid was then due by aforesaid mortgagor and was to retire grantor's said obligation was recorded in the mortgage records at said county in DeKalb SS 1936 at Book and Page Vol. 4411 at page 2411 thereof as in the foregoing recorded mortgage No. 11111 to which reference may be made.

After the recording of said notice of default, as aforesaid, the undersigned trustee gave notice of the time and place of sale of said real properties as listed by him and as required by said Notice of the Trustee's Notice of Sale were served pursuant to C.R.S. §§ 24(1) and 24(2) as required by said first class and certified mail with return receipt required, to the last known address of the persons or their legal representatives, if any, named in C.R.S. §§ 24(1) and 24(2), or last, if there before the date the property was sold, and the Trustee's Notice of Sale was mailed by first class and certified mail with return receipt required, to the last known address of the guardian, conservator or administrator or executor of any person named in C.R.S. §§ 24(1), promptly after the trustee acquired knowledge of the death, insanity or death of any such person; the Notice of Sale was served upon occupants of the property described in the trust deed in the manner in which a summons is served pursuant to C.R.S. §§ 24(1) and 24(2) as above. If there before the date the property was sold, pursuant to C.R.S. §§ 24(1), if the foreclosure proceedings were started and returned from the clerk, copies of an Amended Notice of Sale in the form required by C.R.S. §§ 24(1) were mailed by registered or certified mail to the last known address of those persons listed in C.R.S. §§ 24(1) and 24(2) and to the address provided by each person who was present at the time and place set for the sale which was started within 30 days after the release from the stay; further, the trustee published a copy of said notice of sale in a newspaper of general circulation in each county in which the real and personal properties are situated, once a week for four consecutive weeks; the last publication of said notice occurred more than twenty days prior to the date of such sale. The mailing notices and publication of said notice of sale are shown by one or more affidavits or proofs of service duly recorded prior to the date of sale in the official records of said county; said affidavits and proofs, together with the said notice of default and petition to sell and the trustee's notice of sale, being now referred to and incorporated in and made a part of this trustee's deed as fully as if set out hereon verbatim. The undersigned trustee has the actual notice of any persons, other than the persons named in said affidavits and proofs as having or claiming a lien on or interest in and described real properties, entitled to notice pursuant to C.R.S. §§ 24(1)(3) or 24(2).
