On 12/1/54, the Bureau of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) received a letter from the Bureau of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) dated 11/1/54, regarding the activities of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) in the United States. The letter stated that the CIA was engaged in a campaign of subversion and espionage against the United States government and its citizens. The letter also stated that the CIA was engaged in a campaign of propaganda and public relations to influence the public opinion of the United States. The letter further stated that the CIA was engaged in a campaign of sabotage and destruction of the United States government and its infrastructure. The letter concluded by stating that the CIA was a threat to the security and stability of the United States and that it was necessary for the FBI to take action to counter the activities of the CIA.
