Grantor hereby authorizes and directs beneficiary to procure, if procurable, such credit life or credit life and disability insurance as grantor may have authorized, pay the premiums on all such insurance and deduct the amounts so actually paid from the proceeds of the loan. 2. If this Deed of Trust is subject and subordinate to another Deed of Trust, it is hereby expressly agreed that should any default be made in the payment of any installment of principal or of interest on said prior Deed of Trust, the holder of this Deed of Trust may pay such installment of principal or interest and the amount so paid with legal interest thereon from the time of such payment must be added to the indebtedness secured by this Deed of Trust and the accompanying note shall be deemed to be secured by this Deed of Trust, and it is further expressly agreed that in the event of such default or should any suit be commenced to foreclose said prior Deed of Trust then the amount secured by this Deed of Trust and the accompanying note shall become due and payable at any time thereafter at the sole option of the owner or holder of this Deed of Trust.
3. At any time and from time to time upon written request of beneficiary and presentation of this deed and the note for endorsement (in case of full reconveyance, for cancellation), without affecting the liability of any person for the payment of the indebtedness, trustee may (a) consent to the making of any map or plat of said property; (b) join in granting any easement or creating any restriction thereon; (c) join in any subdivision or other agreement affecting this deed or the lien or charge thereof; (d) reconvey, without warranty, all or any part of the property. The grantee in any reconveyance may be described as the "person or persons legally titled thereto," and the recitals therein of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof.

10. Upon any default by grantor hereunder, beneficiary may at any time without notice, either in person, by agent or by a court appointed receiver and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the property or any part thereof, enter upon and take possession of said property and the rents, issues and profits, including those past due and unpaid, and apply the same, upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such order as beneficiary may determine. After grantor's default and refusal to pay beneficiary, the beneficiary at his election may proceed to foreclose this trust deed in equity as a mortgage on said real property or to foreclose this trust deed in equity as a mortgage advertisement and sale. In the latter event the beneficiary or the trustee shall execute and cause to be recorded his written notice of the obligations secured hereby, whereupon the trustee shall fix the time and place of sale, give notice thereof as then required by law and proceed to foreclose this trust deed in the manner provided in ORS 86.740 to 86.795.

11. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits, or the proceeds of insurance policies or compensation or awards for any taking or damage to insurance property, and the application thereof as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

12. Upon default by grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in his performance of any agreement hereunder, the beneficiary may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable. In such an event and if the above described real property is currently used for agricultural, timber or grazing purposes, the beneficiary may proceed to foreclose this trust deed in equity, as a mortgage on said real property or to foreclose this trust deed in equity as a mortgage advertisement and sale. In the latter event the beneficiary or the trustee shall execute and cause to be recorded his written notice of the obligations secured hereby, whereupon the trustee shall fix the time and place of sale, give notice thereof as then required by law and proceed to foreclose this trust deed in the manner provided in ORS 86.740 to 86.795.

13. Should the beneficiary elect to foreclose by advertisement and sale then after default at any time prior to five days before the date set for the trustee's sale, the grantor or other person or persons so indebted by ORS 86.760, may pay to the beneficiary or his successors in interest, respectively, the full amount then due under the terms of the trust deed and the obligation secured thereby, other than such portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred, and thereby cure the default, in which event all foreclosure proceedings shall be dismissed by the trustee.

14. Otherwise, the sale shall be held on the date and at the time and place designated in the notice of sale. The trustee may sell said property by either in one parcel or in separate parcels and shall sell the parcel or parcels at auction to the highest bidder for cash, payable at the time of sale. Trustee shall deliver to the purchaser its deed in form as required by law conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied, of title. The recitals in the deed of any matters of fact shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person purchasing the sale, excluding the trustee, but including the grantor and beneficiary, may purchase the sale.

15. When trustee sells pursuant to the powers provided herein, secured by the trust deed, (2) to all persons having recorded an obligation subsequent to the interest of the trustee in the trust deed as their interests may appear in the order of their priority and (3) the surplus, if any, to the grantor or to his successor in interest entitled to such surplus, the trustee shall apply the proceeds of sale to payment of (1) the obligation secured by the trust deed, (2) to all persons having recorded an obligation subsequent to the interest of the trustee in the trust deed as their interests may appear in the order of their priority and (3) the surplus, if any, to the grantor or to his successor in interest entitled to such surplus. Each such appointment and substitution shall be made by written instrument executed by grantor, which, when recorded in the office of the recording officers of the county or counties in which the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of the successor trustee.
