Dear Mr Flocks,

S

I would like to make one thing perfectly clear right now; this letter is in no way trying to be the following; mean- selfish- belittling- upsetting- unsensitive, or any form of harassment on my part.

This letter is in regards to your client Michelle Bresee,

I would like it if you would read and explain the legal formalities of the following proposition I have come up with.

Like I told her, and now I will tell you, I will not give Michelle the divorce because I still think very strongly that this marriage can work.

I just want my son and wife back with me to start all over, My son means more to me than anything in the world, and the sad part about it is I can not have him, or be with him because Michelle will not give him up. Michelle wants me to become more active in our son's life, Well I can not if he is down there, and I am up here. I told her I would if she would just give me one last chance to prove to myself first, and then to her.

I miss both of them alot more than I could ever explain,

I relocated because I had to, I was stressed-out my health was not good, and my marriage on the rocks. I hope you can understand what I am trying to say and do here.

Please talk this over with Michelle and write me back concerning this matter, I would greatly appreciate some backfeed,
