FOR THE PURPOSE OF SECURING PERFORMANCE of each agreement of grantor herein contained and payment of the sum of SIX THOUSAND THREE AND 91/100

The date of maturity of the debt secured by this instrument is the date, stated above, on which the final installment of said note becomes due and payable. In the event the within described property, or any part thereof, or any interest therein is sold, agreed to be sold, conveyed, assigned or alienated by the grantor without first having obtained the written consent or approval of the beneficiary then, at the beneficiary's option, all obligations secured by this instrument, irrespective of the maturity dates expressed therein, or herein, shall become immediately due and payable.

granting any easement or creating any restriction thereon; (c) join in an subordination or other agreement affecting this deed or the lien or charge thereof; (d) reconvey, without warranty, all or any part of the property. The grantee in any reconveyance may be described as the "person or persons to whom the property is conveyed" and the recitals therein of any matters or facts shall

10: Upon any default by grantor hereunder, beneficiary may at any time without notice, either in person, by agent or by a receiver to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the adequacy of any security, the indebtedness hereby secured, enter upon and take possession of said property or any part thereof, in its own name sue or otherwise collect the rents, issues and profits, including those past due and unpaid, and apply the same to the satisfaction of the indebtedness hereby secured.

less costs and expenses of operation and collection, including reasonable attorney's fees upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such order as beneficiary may determine.

11. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits, of the proceeds of fire and theft insurance policies or compensation or awards for loss, taking or damage of the property, and the application to release thereof as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done

Section 12. Upon default by grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in his performance of any agreement hereunder, time being of the essence with respect to such payment and/or performance, the beneficiary may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable. In such event the beneficiary at his election may proceed to foreclose this trust deed in equity as a mortgage or direct the trustee to foreclose this trust deed in equity as a mortgage and sale, or may direct the trustee to pursue any other right of remedy available at law or in equity, which the beneficiary may have. In the event

The beneficiary elects to foreclose by advertisement and sale, the beneficiary shall execute and cause to be recorded his or her written declaration that the trustee shall execute and cause to be recorded his or her written declaration of the trustee's election to sell the said described real property to satisfy the obligation and his election to sell the said described real property at the time and place of sale, and secured hereby whereupon the trustee shall file the time and place of sale, give notice as provided as then required by law and proceed to foreclose this trust due in the manner provided in ORS 86.735 to 86.795.

§ 86.813: After the trustee has commenced foreclosure by advertisement and sale, and at any time prior to 3 days before the date the trustee conducts a sale, the grantor or any other person so empowered by ORS 86.735, may cure the default or defaults. The cure consists of a failure to pay, when cures the default or defaults. In trust deed, the default may be cured by paying sums secured under the trust deed. If the amount due at the time of the cure other than such portion as was not then be due had no default occurred. Any other default that is caused by the grantor or any other person so empowered by ORS 86.735, in curing the obligation or trust deed. In any case, the person effecting the cure, under the obligation, the person effecting the cure shall pay to the beneficiary all costs and expenses incurred in enforcing the obligation of the trust deed, together with trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding the amounts previously agreed upon with trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding the amounts previously

14. Otherwise, the sale shall be held at the time to which said sale is place designated in the deed or by agreement between the trustee and the grantor provided, by law. The trustee may sell said property either in one parcel or in separate parcels and shall sell the parcel or parcels to auction to the highest bidder. The trustee shall conduct the sale in accordance with the deed in form as required by law concerning the property so sold, but without any covenant of warranty, express or implied. The recitals in the deed of any matters of fact shall conclusively prevail over the statements made by the trustee, but include all the truthfulness. The trustee, beneficiary, may purchase at the sale the greater or smaller portion of the property.

15. When trustee sells pursuant to the powers provided herein, trustee shall apply the proceeds of sale to payment of the expenses of sale, first, and then the obligation secured by the trust deed, (3) to all payments due to the beneficiaries, and (4) to the balance of the proceeds of sale to the beneficiaries, in the following order:

16. Beneficiary may from time to time appoint a successor or successors to any trustee named herein or to any successor trustee appointed under. Upon such appointment, and without conveyance of the property and trustee, the latter shall be vested with all title, powers and duties conferred upon any trustee herein named or appointed under. Each such appointment and substitution shall be evidenced by a written instrument executed by beneficiary, when recorded, in the mortgage records of the county or counties in which the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment.

1. The following information was obtained from a review of the records of the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Land Management, regarding the land owned by the United States in the State of California:

1. The first step is to identify the problem or question that needs to be answered. This involves understanding the context and the specific information required.

2. Next, gather relevant data and information. This can be done through research, interviews, or other methods. It is important to ensure that the data is accurate and reliable.

3. Once the data is gathered, it needs to be analyzed. This involves looking for patterns, trends, and relationships between the data points. This step often requires the use of statistical tools or software.

4. After analysis, the results need to be interpreted. This means putting the findings into context and understanding what they mean for the problem at hand. It is important to consider any limitations or biases in the data.

5. Finally, the results need to be communicated. This can be done through a report, presentation, or other means. It is important to make the findings clear and easy to understand for the intended audience.
