

as Beneficiary,

together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances and all other rights thereunto belonging or in anywise now or hereafter appertaining, and the rents, issues and profits thereof and all fixtures now or hereafter attached to or used in connection with said real estate.

sum of ONE HUNDRED FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS AND NO/100 ***** ($150,000.00) Dollars, with interest thereon according to the terms of a promissory note of even date herewith, payable to beneficiary or order and made by grantor, the final payment of principal and interest hereof, if not sooner paid, to be due and payable at maturity, 1919
 the date named by this instrument is the date, stated above, on which the final installment of said note

The date of maturity of the debt secured by this instrument is the date, stated above, on which the final installment or said note becomes due and payable. In the event the within described property, or any part thereof, or any interest therein is sold, agreed to be sold, conveyed, assigned or alienated by the grantor without first having obtained the written consent or approval of the beneficiary, then, at the beneficiary's option, all obligations secured by this instrument, irrespective of the maturity dates expressed therein, or herein, shall become immediately due and payable.

To protect the security of this trust deed, grantor agrees.

1. To protect, preserve and maintain said property in good condition and repair; not to remove or demolish any building or improvement thereon; not to commit or permit any waste of said property.

2. To complete or restore promptly and in good and workmanlike manner any building or improvement which may be constructed, damaged or destroyed, and pay when due all costs incurred therefor.

3. To comply with all laws, regulations, covenants, conditions and restrictions relating to the use of the property; if the beneficiary so requests, to join in executing all such financing statements pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code; the beneficiary may require and to pay for filing same in the public office of the county in which the property is located; proper public office or offices, as well as the cost of all lien searches made by filing officers or searching agencies as may be deemed desirable by the beneficiary.

4. To provide and continuously maintain insurance on the buildings now or hereafter erected on the said premises against loss or damage by fire and such other hazards as the beneficiary may from time to time require, in an amount not less than the full replacement value of the buildings, and such policies of insurance shall be delivered to the beneficiary as insurance and to the grantor shall fail or any reason to procure such insurance and to deliver said policies to the beneficiary at least fifteen days prior to the expiration of the term of the insurance now or hereafter placed on said buildings. The beneficiary may procure the same at grantor's expense. The amount of the insurance shall be paid to the beneficiary as beneficiary, and shall be collected under any life or other insurance policy may be applied to as beneficiary, and the beneficiary shall be released to grantor, such application or release shall not constitute a waiver of any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any part thereof pursuant to such notice.

not cure or waive any default or notice of default or constitute a defense to act done pursuant to such notice.

To keep said premises free from construction liens and to pay a taxes, assessments and other charges that may be levied or assessed upon or against said property before any part of such taxes, assessments and other charges become past due or delinquent and promptly to pay such taxes, assessments to beneficiary; should the grantor fail to make payment of any taxes, assessments; insurance premiums, liens and other charges payable by grantor, either by direct payment or by providing beneficiary with funds with which by direct payment or beneficiary may, at its option, make payment thereof; make such payment or payments, with interest at the rate set forth in the note secured hereunder and the amount so paid, with interest at the rate set forth in the note secured hereunder together with the obligations described in paragraphs 6 and 7 of this trust deed, shall be added to and become a part of the debt secured by this trust deed, without waiver of any rights arising from any of the above covenants hereof, and for such payments, with interest as aforesaid, the property hereinbefore described, as well as the grantor, shall be bound to the same extent that they are bound for the payment of the obligation hereby described, and the payments shall be immediately due and payable without notice, and the nonpayment thereof shall, at the option of the beneficiary, constitute a breach of this trust deed.

6. To pay all costs, fees and expenses of this trust including the cost of title search as well as the other costs and expenses of the trustee incurred in connection with or in enforcing this obligation and trustee's and attorney's fees actually incurred.

7. To appear in and defend any action or proceeding purporting to affect the security of the title or powers of beneficiary or trustee; and in any such action or proceeding in which the beneficiary or trustee may appear, including an action or proceeding in which the beneficiary or trustee may appear, including any suit for the foreclosure of this deed, to pay the trustee's attorney's fees; including evidence of title and the deed mentioned in this paragraph 7 in all cases shall be a part of the record of all proceedings in which the beneficiary or trustee is involved by the trial court and in the event of an appeal from such proceedings, the beneficiary or trustee shall be entitled to recover from the appellant such sum as the decree of the trial court, grantor or trustee, as the case may be, shall allow the appellate court shall adjust the reasonable as the beneficiary's or trustee's attorney's fees on such appeal.

It is mutually agreed that:

8. In the event that any portion or all of said property shall be taken under the right of eminent domain, beneficiary shall have the right, if so elected, to require that all or any portion of the monies payable for such compensation for such taking, which are in excess of the amount to be paid to pay all reasonable costs, expenses and attorney's fees, be paid to beneficiary and incurred by grantor in any reasonable costs and expenses and attorney's fees, both in the trial and appellate courts, necessarily paid or incurred by beneficiary in such proceedings, and the balance, after payment of the indebtedness secured hereby; and grantor agrees to pay the reasonable expense to take such actions and to pay all costs and expenses as shall be necessary in obtaining such compensation, promptly upon beneficiary's request.

9. At any time and from time to time upon written request of beneficiary, payment of its fees and presentation of this deed and the note for endorsement (in case of full reconveyances, for cancellation), without affecting the liability of any person for the payment of the indebtedness, trustee may (a) consent to the making of any map or plat of said property; (b) join in granting any easement or creating any restriction thereon; (c) join in any subordination or other agreement affecting this deed or the lien or charge thereon; (d) convey, without warranty, all or any part of the property; the grantee, in any reconveyance may be described as the "person or persons legally entitled thereto," and the recitals therein of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Trustee's fees for any of the services mentioned in this paragraph shall be not less than $5.

10 Upon any default by grantor hereunder, beneficiary may at any time without notice, either in person, by agent or by a receiver appointed by a court, and without regard to any lien or any security for the indebtedness of the grantor, enter upon and take possession of said property in any part thereof, in its own name sue or otherwise collect the rents and profits therefrom, and receive the same, and pay the same to the issues and profits, including those past due and unpaid, and the attorney's fees and costs of collection, and the expenses of collection, including reasonable legal costs and expenses of opposition collected hereby, and in such order as beneficiary may determine.

11. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits, or the proceeds of fire and other insurance policies or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

13. After the trustee has been notified in writing by the beneficiary of the default or defaults, the trustee shall, within five (5) days before the date the trustee conducts the sale, and at any time prior to the sale, tender to the beneficiary the sum or sums due to the beneficiary by the trustee on account of the default or defaults. If the default consists of a failure to pay the sum or sums due to the beneficiary, the default or defaults shall be cured by paying the sum or sums secured by the trust deed, the sum or sums to be cured other than such portion as would be applied to the payment of the sum or sums due to the beneficiary at the time of the default occurred. Any other default that is capable of being cured may be cured by tendering the performance required by the trust deed, the obligation or obligation or trust deed. In any case, in addition to the sum or sums due to the beneficiary all costs and expenses actually incurred by the trustee in enforcing the obligation of the trust deed together with trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding the amounts provided for in the trust deed shall be paid by the beneficiary on or before the date and at the time and

14. Otherwise, the sale shall be held on the date and at the time and place designated in the notice of sale or the time to which said sale may be postponed. The trustee may sell the parcel or parcels in one or more lots, in whole or in separate parcels and shall sell the parcel or parcels to the highest bidder for cash, payable at the time of sale. The trustee shall deliver to the purchaser a deed of conveyance required by law concerning the property sold without any covenant or warranty, express or implied. The recitals in the deed of any matters of fact shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any purchase at the sale.

15. When trustee sells pursuant to the powers provided herein, trustee shall apply the proceeds of sale to payment of (1) the expenses of sale, including the compensation of the trustee and a reasonable charge by trustee's attorney, (2) to the obligation secured by the trust, and (3) to the persons having recorded liens subsequent to the date of the sale of the trustee in the trust deed as their interest may appear in the order of their priority and (4) the surplus, if any, to the grantor or to his successor in interest entitled to such surplus.

16. Beneficiary may from time to time appoint a successor or successors to any trustee named herein or to any successor trustee appointed hereunder. Upon such appointment, and without conveyance to the successor trustee, the latter shall be vested with all title, powers and duties conferred upon any trustee herein named or appointed hereunder by the instrument upon which any trustee herein named or appointed hereunder has succeeded, and substitution shall be made of the latter instrument executed by beneficiary, which, when recorded in the mortgage records of the county or counties in which the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of the successor trustee.

17. Trustee accepts this trust when this deed, duly executed and acknowledged is made a public record as provided by law. Trustee is not obligated to notify any party hereto of pending or passing under any other deed or trust or of any action or proceeding in which grantor, beneficiary or trustee shall be a party unless such action or proceeding is brought by trustee.

NOTE: The Trust Deed Act provides that the trustee hereunder must be either an attorney, who is an active member of the Oregon State Bar, a bank, trust company or savings and loan association authorized to do business under the laws of Oregon or the United States, a title insurance company authorized to insure title to real property of this state, its subsidiaries, affiliates, agents or branches, the United States or any agency thereof, or an escrow agent licensed under ORS 696.505 to 696.585.
