To Have and to Hold the said premises with the appurtenances unto the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns forever.

This mortgage is intended to secure the payment of a certain promissory note, described as follows:

And if the mortgagor shall fail to pay any taxes or charges of any lien, encumbrances or insurance premium as above provided for, the mortgagee may at his option do so, and any payment so made shall be added to and become a part of the debt secured by this mortgage, and shall bear interest at the same rate as said note without waiver, however, any right arising to the mortgagee for breach of covenant. And this mortgage may be foreclosed for principal, interest and all sums paid by the mortgagee at any time while the mortgagor neglects to repay any sums so paid by the mortgagee.

In the event of any suit or action being instituted to foreclose this mortgage, the losing party in such suit or action agrees to pay all reasonable costs incurred by the prevailing party therein for title reports and title search, all statutory costs and disbursements and such further sum as the trial court may adjudge reasonable as the prevailing party's attorney's fees in such suit or action, and if an appeal is taken from any judgment or decree entered therein the losing party further promises to pay such sum as the appellate court shall adjudge reasonable as the prevailing party's attorney's fees on such appeal, all such sums to be included in the court's decree. Each and all of the covenants and agreements herein contained shall apply to and bind the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of said mortgagor and of said mortgagee respectively. In case suit or action is commenced to foreclose this mortgage, the court may, upon motion of the mortgagee, appoint a receiver to collect the rents and profits arising out of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure, and apply the same, first deducting all proper charges and expenses attending the execution of said trust, as the court may direct in its judgment or decree.

In construing this mortgage, it is understood that the mortgagor or mortgagee may be more than one person; that if the context so requires, the singular pronoun shall be taken to mean and include the plural, the masculine and the feminine and the neuter, and that generally all grammatical changes shall be made, assumed and implied to make the provisions hereof apply equally to corporations and to individuals.
