

NE 20567 MTC #24237-DT TRUST DEED Vol 1992 Page 19785

THIS TRUST DEED, made this 23 day of August, 1990, between Gary L. Hubbs and Patricia E. Hubbs, husband and wife as Grantor, MOUNTAIN TITLE COMPANY OF KLAMATH COUNTY, as Trustee, and Gleta Wampler, as Beneficiary,

WITNESSETH: Grantor irrevocably grants, bargains, sells and conveys to trustee in trust, with power of sale, the property in Klamath County, Oregon, described as:

Lot 31, Block 1, TRACT 1029, SPRIGUE RIVER PINES, according to the official plat thereof on file in the office of the County Clerk of Klamath County, Oregon

Tax Account No: 3408 021100 00300

together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances in anywise now or hereafter appertaining, and the rents, issues and profits thereof and all fixtures now or hereafter attached to or used in connection with said real estate.

FOR THE PURPOSE OF SECURING PERFORMANCE of each agreement of grantor herein contained and payment of the sum of ($25,310.00) DOLLARS, with interest thereon according to the terms of a promissory note of even date herewith, payable to beneficiary or order and made by grantor, the final payment of principal and interest hereof, if not sooner paid, to be due and payable on the date of maturity of the debt secured by this instrument in the date, stated above, on which the final installment of said note becomes due and payable. In the event the within described property, or any part thereof, or any interest therein is sold, agreed to be sold, conveyed, assigned or alienated by the grantor without first having obtained the written consent or approval of the beneficiary, then, at the beneficiary's option, all obligations secured by this instrument, irrespective of the maturity dates expressed therein, or herein, shall become immediately due and payable.

To protect the security of this trust deed, grantor agrees:

1. To protect, preserve and maintain said property in good condition and repair; not to remove or demolish any building or improvement thereon; not to enclose or permit any waste of said property; not to complete or induce promptly and in good and workmanlike manner any building or improvement which may be constructed, damaged or destroyed thereon, and pay when due all costs incurred thereon.

2. To comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations, covenants, conditions and restrictions affecting said property; if the beneficiary requests, to join in executing such recording statements pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code at the beneficiary's expense, as well as the cost of all searches made by title insurers or searching agencies as may be deemed advisable by the beneficiary.

3. To provide and continuously maintain insurance on the buildings now or hereafter erected on the said premises against loss or damage by fire and theft for not less than $100,000.00, and to pay when due all costs of such insurance, and to provide and continuously maintain liability insurance for not less than $100,000.00, and to pay when due all costs of such insurance.

4. To pay all taxes, assessments and other charges that may be levied or assessed upon or against said property within any period of such taxes, assessments and other charges before such due date, and to pay when due all costs of such taxes, assessments and other charges, and to pay when due all costs of such taxes, assessments and other charges, and to pay when due all costs of such taxes, assessments and other charges.

5. To pay all costs, fees and expenses of this trust, including the cost of this deed, as well as the other costs and expenses of the trustee incurred in connection with or in enforcing this obligation and interest and attorney's fees as may be incurred.

6. To answer an oral demand any action or proceeding purporting to affect the title or interest of beneficiary or trustee, and in any suit, action or proceeding in which the beneficiary or trustee may appear, including any suit to enforce the terms of this deed, to pay all costs and expenses, including attorney's fees, of the beneficiary or trustee, and to pay when due all costs of such taxes, assessments and other charges.

7. In the event that any portion (or all) of said property shall be taken under the right of eminent domain or condemnation, beneficiary shall have the right, if so elected, to require that all of any portion of the proceeds payable in compensation for such taking, which are in excess of the amount required to pay all reasonable costs, expenses and attorney's fees, be paid to beneficiary and included in the trust and appurtenances, and the balance applied upon the indebtedness secured hereby, and grantor agrees, at its own expense, to take such actions and execute such instruments as shall be necessary to obtain such compensation promptly upon beneficiary's request.

8. To sign a true and correct copy of this deed and the note for endorsement (in case of full reconveyance, for cancellation) without affecting the liability of any person for the payment of the indebtedness, trustee may (a) consent to the making of any map or plat of said property; (b) join in granting any easement or creating any restriction thereon; (c) join in any subdivision or other agreement affecting this deed or the lien or charge thereon; (d) reconvey, without warranty, all or any part of the property. The trustee in any reconveyance may be described as the "person or persons jointly entitled thereto," and the recitals therein of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Trustee's fees for any of the services mentioned in this paragraph shall be not less than $5.

9. Upon any default by grantor hereunder, beneficiary may at any time without notice, either in person, by agent or by a receiver to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the indebtedness hereby secured, enter upon and take possession of said property or any part thereof, in its own name sue or otherwise collect the rents, issues and profits, including those past due and unpaid, and apply the same, less costs and expenses of operation and collection, including reasonable attorney's fees upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such order as beneficiary may determine.

10. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits, or the proceeds of fire and other insurance policies or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the property, and the application or release thereof as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any action pursuant to such notice.

11. Upon default by grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in his performance of any agreement hereunder, time being of the essence with respect to such payment and/or performance, the beneficiary may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable. In such an event the beneficiary at his election may proceed to foreclose this trust deed by equity as a mortgage or direct the trustee to foreclose this trust deed by advertisement and sale, or may direct the trustee to pursue any other right or remedy, either at law or in equity, which the beneficiary may have. In the event the beneficiary elects to foreclose by advertisement and sale, the beneficiary or the trustee shall execute and cause to be recorded his written notice of default and his election to sell the said described real property to satisfy the obligation secured hereby whereupon the trustee shall fix the time and place of sale, give notice thereof as then required by law and proceed to foreclose this trust deed in the manner provided in ORS 86.215 to 86.295.

12. After the trustee has commenced foreclosure by advertisement and sale, and at any time prior to 5 days before the date the trustee conducts the sale, the grantor or any other person so privileged by ORS 86.753, may cure the default or defaults. If the default consists of a loan, the grantor, when due, the sums secured by the trust deed, the default may be cured by paying the entire amount due at the time of the cure other than such portion as would not then be due had no default occurred. Any other default that is capable of being cured may be cured by tendering the performance required under the obligation or trust deed. In any case, in addition to curing the default or defaults, the person effecting the cure shall pay to the beneficiary all costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the obligation of the trust deed together with trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding the amounts provided by law.

13. Otherwise, the sale shall be held on the date and at the time and place designated in the notice of sale or the time to which said sale may be postponed as provided by law. The trustee may sell said property either in one parcel or in separate parcels and shall sell the parcel or parcels at auction to the highest bidder for cash, payable at the time of sale. Trustee shall deliver to the purchaser its deed in form as required by law conveying the property sold, but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied. The recitals in the deed of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, excluding the trustee, but including the grantor and beneficiary, may purchase at the sale.

14. When trustee sells pursuant to the powers provided herein, trustee shall apply the proceeds of sale to payment of (1) the expenses of sale, including the compensation of the trustee and a reasonable charge by trustee's attorney, (2) to the obligation secured by the trust deed, (3) to all persons having recorded liens subsequent to the interest of the grantor and (4) the deed as their interests may appear in the order of their priority and the surplus, if any, to the grantor or to his successor in interest entitled to such surplus.

15. Beneficiary may from time to time appoint a successor or successors to any trustee named herein or to any successor appointed hereunder. Upon such appointment, and without conveyance to the successor trustee, the latter shall be vested with all title, powers and duties conferred upon any trustee herein named or appointed hereunder. Each such appointment and substitution shall be made by written instrument executed by beneficiary, and when recorded in the mortgage records of the county or counties in which the property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper appointment of the successor trustee.

16. Trustee accepts this trust deed, duly executed and acknowledged, is made a public record as provided by law. Trustee is not obligated to notify any party hereto of pending sale under any other deed of trust or of any action or proceeding in which grantor, beneficiary or trustee shall be a party unless such action or proceeding is brought by trustee.

NOTE: The Trust Deed Act provides that the trustee hereunder must be either an attorney, who is an active member of the Oregon State Bar, a bank, trust company or savings and loan association authorized to do business under the laws of the United States, a title insurance company authorized to insure title to real property of this state, its subdivisions, officers, agents or brokers, the United States or any agency thereof, or an escrow agent licensed under ORS 696.505 to 696.585.

The grantor covenants and agrees to and with the beneficiary and those claiming under him, that he is lawfully seized in fee simple of said described real property and has a valid, unincumbered title thereto except none and that he will warrant and forever defend the same against all persons whomsoever.

The grantor warrants that the proceeds of the loan represented by the above described note and this trust deed are:
(a) primarily for grantor's personal, family or household purposes (see Important Notice below),
(b) for an education, or (even if grantor is a natural person) are for business or commercial purposes.

This deed applies to, inures to the benefit of and binds all parties hereto, their heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors, personal representatives, successors and assigns. The term beneficiary shall mean the holder and owner, including pledgee, of the contract secured hereby, whether or not named as a beneficiary herein. In construing this deed and whenever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine and the neuter, and the singular number includes the plural.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, said grantor has hereunto set his hand and the day and year first above written.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: Caution, by taking out, which ever voluntarily (a) or (b) is not applicable if voluntary (a) is applicable and the beneficiary is a creditor on that word is defined in the Truth-in-Lending Act and Regulation Z, the beneficiary MUST comply with the Act and Regulation Z by avoiding required disclosures for this purpose (see Oregon-Moss Form No. 1319, or equivalent). If (any) borrower with the Act is not required, disregard this notice.
