On May 28, 1991 as I was driving home on Fargo St. I saw a young man riding a large bike with a smaller blue bike on his shoulders. The smaller blue bike looked like my grandson's bike - I slowed down and the boy looked real hard at me and took off behind Clinton Douglas Floor Covering into Andy Geigler's trailer park. I assumed he was running from me and it was my grandson's bike - I went into Geigler's Park and saw the boy riding between trailers on the blue bike. At this point a fellow from the Corner Carpet saw all this and tried to help me find the boy. He found the big bike, the man suggested I take it home and call the police. Meanwhile - my brother was dropping off his sister-in-law at the Trailer Park. I told him what had happened - so he said he'd see if he could find the boy - He did find the boy and the boy told him - he thought I was his neighbor's divorced "crazy" wife. Also he was taking his neighbor's blue bike to fill a flat tire - My brother told him to follow him as he knew where the bike was, the boy followed him for about a half block and took off down an alley - I called 911 - the Sheriff's deputy arrived and took the information and suggested I file a claim.
