any part thereof, the mortgagee shall have the option to declare the whole amount unpaid on said note and on this mortgage at once due and payable, time being of the essence with respect to such payment and/or performance, and this mortgage may be foreclosed at any time thereafter. And if the mortgagor shall fail to pay any taxes or charges of any lien, encumbrance or insurance premium as above provided for, the mortgagee may at mortgagee's option do so, and any payment so made shall be added to and become a part of the debt secured by this mortgage, and shall bear interest at the same rate as said note without waiver, however, of any right arising to the mortgagee for breach of covenant. And this mortgage may be foreclosed for principal, interest and all sums paid by the mortgagee at any time while the mortgagor neglects to repay any sums so paid by the mortgagee.

adjudge reasonable as the prevailing party's attorney's fees in such suit or action; and if an appeal is taken from any judgment or decree entered therein the losing party further promises to pay such sum as the appellate court shall adjudge reasonable as the prevailing party's attorney's fees on such appeal, all such sums to be included in the court's decree. Each and all of the covenants and agreements herein contained shall apply to and bind the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of said mortgagor and of said mortgagee respectively. In case suit or action is commenced to foreclose this mortgage, the court may, upon motion of the mortgagee, appoint a receiver to collect the rents and profits arising out of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure, and apply the same, first deducting all proper charges and expenses attending the execution of said trust, as the court may direct in its judgment or decree.

In construing this mortgage, it is understood that the mortgagor or mortgagee may be more than one person; that if the contest so requires, the singular
