Addendum To Closing Instructions
between the Judd's & Rober's
escrow #30697

Buyer and Seller agree that the seller will allow the buyer access to the boat docks through existing roads that cross over the seller's private property for a period not exceeding one year from the date of closing. Buyer understands access to the boat area is given for a period not exceeding one year from date of closing and that the buyer must construct their own access road through their property at their expense within the time period stated. The access given is not an easement.
