3. Continuity of Service

The Seller shall use reasonable diligence to provide an uninterrupted supply of electric power and energy; but if such supply shall fail or be interrupted; or become defective through act of God, or the public enemy, or by accident, strikes, labor troubles, or by action of the elements or inability to secure right-of-way, or other permits needed, or for any other cause beyond the reasonable control of the Seller, the Seller shall not be liable therefor.

4. Membership

The Consumer shall become a Member of the Seller, shall pay the Membership Fee and be bound by the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Seller and by such rules and regulations as may from time to time be adopted by the Seller.

5. Deposit Policy

A deposit will be collected when a member joins or rejoins the Cooperative in accordance with the deposit policy then in effect.

6. Right of Access

Consumer shall grant Seller an easement and any duly authorized representative of Seller shall be permitted to enter Consumer's premises at all reasonable times in order to carry out the provisions hereof.

7. Term

This Agreement shall become effective on the date service is first delivered hereunder by the Seller to the Consumer, and shall remain in effect for a period of one year and thereafter until terminated by either party giving to the other six (6) month's notice in writing, provided, however, that no assignment hereof shall be made by the Consumer without first obtaining the Seller's written consent.
