THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES,

To all whom these presents shall come,

Know ye, That George C. Green, President of the United States General Land Office, has issued to George Morris, of the said office, a patent for a tract of land, situated in the State of Oregon, in the County of Marion, in Township Number

Number One, Range Number One, Section Number

Number One, containing one hundred and forty acres, more or less, being the same described as follows: To wit, the tract of land so described, is bounded on the north by the boundary line of Section Four, in Township Number One, Range Number One, and on the south by the boundary line of Section Two, containing one hundred and forty acres, and containing nine hundred and six acres, according to the Official Plat of the Survey of said Land, returned to the General Land Office by General

Now know ye that this is a grant, granted by the United States, and made to George

Morris, the tract of Land above described, to have and to hold the said tract of Land with all appurtenances unto the said George Morris, his heirs and assigns forever; subject to any valid and accrued water rights for irrigation, granted or reserved for other purposes, and rights to ditches and canals, and in connection with such water rights as may be acknowledged by the local customs, laws, and decrees of courts, and also subject to the right of the president or acts to enter, and remove his air thoughts, should the same be found to prevent or interfere the grant granted, as provided by law.

In testimony whereof, I, George C. Green, ~~PRESIDENT OF THE~~ UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, have caused these letters to be made Patent and sent to the General Land Office to be recorded, etc.

Given under my hand at the City of Washington, the 22nd day of April, in the year of our Lord一千九百零二年 thousand nine hundred and thirteen years, Independence of the United States the fourteenth year.

By the President: George C. Green
