SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF SANTA CLARA

In re the marriage of

Petitioner: BILLY J. JONES and

CASE NUMBER
342842

Respondent: JANE D. JONES

INTERLOCUTORY JUDGMENT OF
DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

This proceeding was heard on 4-22-76

by

PETER L. ANELLO

Department No.

The court acquired jurisdiction of the respondent on 1-6-76

by

☒ Service of process on that date, respondent is being appointed as a party and is now represented by law.

☐ Service of process on that date and respondent having appeared

☐ Respondent on that date having appeared

The court orders that on withdrawal of the petition, the parties are ordered to have their marriage dissolved. This interlocutory judgment does not constitute a final dissolution of marriage and the parties are still married and will be, and neither party may remarry until a final judgment of dissolution is entered.

The court also orders that, unless both parties file their consent to a dismissal of this proceeding, a final judgment of dissolution be entered upon proper application of either party or on the court's own motion after the expiration of six months from the date the court acquired jurisdiction of the respondent. The final judgment shall include such order and further relief as may be necessary to a complete disposition of this proceeding, but entry of the final judgment shall not deprive this court of its jurisdiction over any money expressly reserved to it in this or the final judgment until a final disposition is made of each such matter.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

1. That petitioner be awarded the care, custody and control of the one minor child of the parties, to wit, BILLIE JO JONES, born August 1, 1973, age 2, subject to respondent's rights of reasonable visitation.

2. Both the petitioner and respondent hereby waive rights to spousal support.
