FINAL ORDER OF DETERMINATION
 (DEFAULT)

NO. 96-062

vs

Bob Bitzer, dba Bitzer Logging) Employer)

SEP 16 11:24 AM

ON JUNE 25, 1996, the Order of Determination in the within-captioned proceeding was duly served in the manner provided for by the law. Said Order of Determination provided employer, hereinafter known as Bob Bitzer, dba Bitzer Logging, with an an opportunity to make written request for a hearing before the Commissioner of the Oregon Bureau of Labor and Industries or, alternatively, request a trial in a court of law within twenty days after service of the Order of Determination. No such request was received within the time allowed, and coupled with the fact employer attempted to pay wages due on said Order of Determination with a check from a closed account, that Order of Determination became final by default on JULY 15, 1996.

BASED UPON THE FOREGOING and the investigative information and documentary material on file herein, the Commissioner of the Oregon Bureau of Labor and Industries finds that the amount of the wages claimed as set forth in the Order of Determination herein are now due and owing.
