The seller agrees that at seller's expense and within days from the date hereof, seller will furnish unto buyer a title insurance policy insuring (in an amount equal to the purchase price) marketable title in and to the premises in the seller's or subsequent to the date of this agreement, save and except the usual related exceptions and the building and other restrictions and encumbrances now or hereafter, if any. Seller also agrees that when the purchase price is fully paid and when registered and upon surrender of this agreement, seller will deliver a good and sufficient deed conveying the premises in fee simple unto the buyer, buyer's heirs and assigns, free and clear of encumbrances as of the date hereof and free and clear of all encumbrances since the date placed, recorded or arising by, through or under color, excepting, however, the covenants, restrictions and the taxes, principal taxes, water rents and public charges as assumed by the buyer and further excepting all liens and encumbrances created by the buyer or buyer's assigns.

And it is understood and agreed between the parties that time is of the essence of this contract, and in case the buyer shall fail to make the payments above required, or any of them, punctually within 20 days of the time limited therefor, or fail to keep any agreement herein contained, then the seller shall have the following rights and options:

- (1) To declare this contract cancelled for default and null and void, and to declare the purchaser's rights forfeited, and the debt extinguished, and to retain sums previously paid hereunder by the buyer;
- (2) To declare the whole unpaid principal balance of the purchase price with the interest thereon at once due and payable; and/or
- (3) To foreclose this contract by suit in equity.

In any of such cases, all rights and interest created or then existing in favor of the buyer as against the seller hereunder shall utterly cease and the right to the possession of the premises above described and all other rights acquired by the buyer hereunder shall revert to and revert to the seller without any act of re-entry, or any other act of the seller to be performed and without any right of the buyer of return, reclamation or compensation for money paid on account of the purchase of the property as absolutely, fully and perfectly as if this contract and such payments had never been made; and in case of such default all payments theretofore made on this contract are to be retained by and belong to the seller as the agreed and reasonable rent of the premises up to the time of such default. And the seller, in case of such default, shall have the right immediately, or at any time thereafter, to enter upon the land aforesaid, without any process of law, and take immediate possession thereof, together with all the improvements and appurtenances thereto or thereto belonging.

The buyer further agrees that failure by the seller at any time to require performance by the buyer of any provision hereof shall in no way affect seller's right hereunder to enforce the same, nor shall any waiver by the seller of any breach of any provision herein be held to be a waiver of any succeeding breach of any such provision, or as a waiver of the provision itself.

SELLER ALSO TO KEEP HOME OWNERS INSURANCE POLICY ACTIVE, SHOWING
G.S. MORTGAGE AS THE LOSS PAYEE! Seller shall remain responsible for all payments due to the lender, GN Mortgage Corporation.

The true and actual consideration paid for this transfer, stated in terms of dollars, is $..... 75,000.00 However, the actual consideration consists of or includes other property or value given or promised which is part of the whole consideration (Indicate which). ☐

In case suit or action is instituted to foreclose this contract or to enforce any provision hereof, the losing party in the suit or action agrees to pay such sum as the trial court may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fees to be allowed the prevailing party in the suit or action and if an appeal is taken from any judgment or decree of the trial court, the losing party further promises to pay such sum as the appellate court shall adjudge reasonable as the prevailing party's attorney's fees on such appeal.

In construing this contract, it is understood that the seller or the buyer may do more than one person or a corporation; that if the contract so requires, the singular premium shall be taken to mean and include the plural and the reverse, and that generally all grammatical changes shall be made, assumed and implied to make the provisions hereof apply equally to corporations and to individuals.

This agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of, as the circumstances may require, not only the immediate parties hereto but their respective heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives, successors in interest and assigns as well.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this instrument in duplicate; if either of the undersigned is a corporation, it has caused its name to be signed and its seal, if any, affixed by an officer or other person duly authorized to do so by order of its board of directors.
