BASIS FOR ORDER

Every employer of one or more subject workers in Oregon is a subject employer (ORS 656.023).

Every subject employer is required to provide workers' compensation coverage for its subject workers, in conformity with ORS 656.017 (ORS 656.052(1)).

Every subject employer shall maintain assurance with the Department of Insurance and Finance that it has provided coverage for its subject workers (ORS 656.017(1)). It shall do so by qualifying as a self-insured employer or by causing a guaranty contract from its insurer to be filed with the Department (ORS 656.407(1)).

If there is reason to believe that an employer has failed to provide workers' compensation coverage for its subject workers, the Department of Insurance and Finance shall serve the employer with an order declaring the employer to be noncomplying and assessing a civil penalty (ORS 656.052(2)).

A civil penalty of $1,000 shall be assessed against any subject employer who does not provide workers' compensation coverage for its subject workers and maintain assurance of the coverage with the Department by qualifying as a self-insured employer or by causing a guaranty contract from its insurer to be filed with the Department (ORS 656.735(1), OAR 436-80-040(1)).

If there is a compensable claim arising from an injury to a subject employee of a noncomplying employer, the noncomplying employer is liable for payment of all costs related to the claim and for an additional civil penalty (ORS 656.054(3), ORS 656.735(3)).
