tract or loan agreement between them, beneficiary may purchase insurance at grantor's expense to protect bene-ficiary's interest. This insurance may, but need nut, also protect grantor's interest. If the colleteral becomes damaged, the coverage purchased by beneficiary may not pay any claim made by or against grantor. Grantor may later cancel the coverage by providing evidence that grantor has obtained property coverage elsewhere. Grantor is responsible for the cost of any insurance coverage purchased by beneficiary, which cost may be added to grantor's contract or loan belance. If it is so added, the interest rate on the underlying contract or loan will apply to it. The effective date of coverage may be the date granter's prior coverage lapsed or the date granter failed to provide proof of coverage. The coverage beneficiary purchases may be considerably more expensive then insurance granter might otherwise obtain alone and may not satisfy any need for property damage coverage or any mandatory liability insurance re-Quirements imposed by applicable law.
The granter warrants that the proceeds of the loan represented by the above described note and this trust deed are:
(a)* primarily for granter's personal, lamily of household purpose (see Important Notice below),
