Consideration: Deed in lieu of foreclosure

THIS INDENTURE between Shan Ferrier hereinafter called the first party, and Bruce E. Brink, hereinafter called the second party:

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the title to the real property hereinafter described is vested in fee simple in the first party, subject to the lien of a mortgage or trust deed recorded in the mortgage records of the county hereinafter named, in book/reel/volume No. M01 at page 40211 thereof, reference to said records hereby being made, and the notes and indebtedness secured by said mortgage or trust deed are now owned by the second party, on which notes and indebtedness there is now owing and unpaid the sum of $45,413.25, the same being now in default and said mortgage or trust deed being now subject to immediate foreclosure, and whereas the first party, being unable to pay the same, has requested the second party to accept an absolute deed of conveyance of said property in satisfaction of the indebtedness secured by said mortgage and the second party does now accede to said request.

NOW, THEREFORE, for the consideration hereinafter stated (which includes the cancellation of the notes and indebtedness secured by said mortgage or trust deed and the surrender thereof marked "Paid in Full" to the first party), the first party does hereby grant, bargain, sell and convey unto the second party, second party's heirs, successors and assigns, all of the following described real property situate in Klamath County, State of Oregon, to-wit:

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the same unto said second party, second party's heirs, successors and assigns forever.

And the first party, for first party and first party's heirs and legal representatives, does covenant to and with the second party, second party's heirs, successors and assigns, that the first party is lawfully seized in fee simple of said property, free and clear of encumbrances except said mortgage or trust deed and further except trust deed dated August 7, 2001, recorded M01, page 40208, in favor of Henry J.
