TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the same unto the second party and second party's heirs, successors and assigns forever.

And the first party, for first party and first party's heirs and legal representatives, does covenant to and with the second party and second party's heirs, successors and assigns, that the first party is lawfully seized in fee simple of the property, free and clear of encumbrances except the mortgage or trust deed and not otherwise except (if none, so state) those of record that the first party will warrant and forever defend the above granted premises, and every part and parcel thereof against the lawful claims and demands of all persons whomsoever, other than the liens above expressly excepted; that this deed is intended as a conveyance, absolute in legal effect as well as in form, of the title to the premises to the second party and all redemption rights which the first party may have therein, and not as a mortgage, trust deed or security of any kind; that possession of the premises hereby is surrendered and delivered to the second party; that in executing this deed the first party is not acting under any misapprehension as to the effect thereof or under any duress, undue influence, or misrepresentation by the second party, or second party's representatives, agents or attorneys; that this deed is not given as a preference over other creditors of the first party, and that at this time there is no person, partnership or corporation, other than the second party, interested in the premises directly or indirectly, in any manner whatsoever, except as set forth above.
