TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the same unto the second party and second party's heirs, successors and assigns forever.  And the first party, for first party and first party's heirs and legal representatives, does covenant to and with the second party and second party's heirs, successors and assigns, that the first party is lawfully seized in fee simple of the property, free and clear of neumbrances except the mortgage or trust deed and not otherwise except (if none, so state) that the first party will warrant and forever defend the above granted premises, and every part and parcel thereof against the lawful laims and demands of all persons whomsoever, other than the liens above expressly excepted; that this deed is intended as a coneyance, absolute in legal effect as well as in form, of the title to the premises to the second party and all redemption rights which he first party may have therein, and not as a mortgage, trust deed or security of any kind; that possession of the premises hereby is a triendered and delivered to the second party; that in executing this deed the first party is not acting under any misapprehension as the effect thereof or under any duress, undue influence, or misrepresentation by the second party, or second party's representatives, agents or attorneys; that this deed is not given as a preference over other creditors of the first party, and that at this time there is no person, partnership or corporation, other than the second party, interested in the premises directly or indirectly, in any manner whatsoever, except as set forth above.  In construing this instrument, it is understood and agreed that the first party as well as the second party may be more than the person; that if the context so requires the singular includes the plural, and that all grammatical changes shall be made, assumed and implied to make the provisions hereof apply equally to corporations and to individuals.
IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the first party has executed this instrument. If first party is a corporation, it has caused its name be signed and its seal, if any, affixed by an officer or other person duly authorized to do so by order of its board of directors.
