STATE OF OREGON WELL INFORMATION FORM (FILE WITH COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE) Pursuant to ORS 537.788, owners of property on which a well is located shall, within 60 days following the constraint and/or alteration of a new well or upon property transfer, record the following information in the property deed records at the appropriate County Clerks Office. Either the deed recording number or legal description of the property may be used to identify the property. Property Owner Name(s):	OC no constant
Recorded 06/21/2023 STATE OF OREGON WELL INFORMATION FORM (FILE WITH COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE) Pursuant to ORS 537.788, owners of property on which a well is located shall, within 60 days following the const and/or alteration of a new well or upon property transfer, record the following information in the property devergency at the appropriate County Clerks Office. Either the deed recording number or legal description of the property Owner Name(s); Property Owner Name(s); Mailing Address: Property Owner Name(s): Deed Recording Number (or legal description): May 11.3-145 Well Identification Number(s): LotS277 Rights and Responsibilities: Oregon law finds that ownership and the rights to reasonable control of water within this state belongs to the public to be managed by the Water Resources Department. Most uses of water require a water right issued by the Water Resources Department. However, state Incomments of groundwater vithout benefit of a water right. Contact the Department of more information. The Water Resources Department in description of the property in addition to the above, owners of properties on which a well is located are suppossible for maintaining that stell in a propert manager is the presence of water in the destread mount on a specific property. In addition to the above, owners of properties on which a well is located are suppossible for maintaining that stell in a proper manager. Sume basis required littled below. All wells shall be accurately covered to prevent any foreign substance from emisting the well. All wells shall be accurately covered to prevent any foreign substance from emisting the well. All wells shall be pupiped with an access port or attribute to his state water level information can be determined at any time. Wells many only be permanently shandoned by a license in the hondoning your well, or with a valid permit and bond. Wells many only be permanently shandoned by a license in the hondoning your well in the property owner(s). This instrument was acknowled	Return to: Herene K Melson 16808 Houghb	Vol. M03 Page 43103
Pursuant to ORS 537.788, owners of property on which a well is located shall, within 60 days following the const and/or alteration of a new well or upon property transfer, record the following information in the property devergeors at the appropriate County Clerks Office. Either the deed recording number or legal description of the property may be used to identify the property. Property Owner Name(s):	03 JUN 24 PM2:32	Recorded 06/24/2003 2:32 p m.
Pursuant to ORS 537.788, owners of property on which a well is located shall, within 60 days following the constant and/or alteration of a new well or upon property transfer, record the following information in the property decretors at the appropriate County Clerks Office. Either the deed recording number or legal description of the property may be used to identify the property. Property Owner Name(s): Mailing Address: Well Identification Number(s): Kight and Responsibilities: Oregon law finds that ownership and the rights to reasonable control of water within his state belongs to the public to be managed by the Water Resources Department. Most uses of water require a water right issued by the Water Resources Department. However, state law some uses of groundwater without benefit of a water right. Contact the Department for more information. The Water Resources Department cannot get the presence of water in the desired amount on a specific property. In addition to the above, owners of properties on which a well is located are responsible for maintaining that well in a proper manner. Some basis required itself below. All wells shall be equipped with an accessor port or airlines so that state water level information, or a waste of the groundwater resource. All wells shall be equipped with an access port or airlines so that state water level information can be determined at any time. Well casing must be protected from damage and meet minimum extension requirements. Well casing must be protected from damage and meet minimum extension requirements. Well casing must be protected from damage and meet minimum extension requirements. Well casing must be protected from damage and meet minimum extension requirements. Well casing must be protected from damage and meet minimum extension requirements. Well casing must be protected from damage and meet minimum extension requirements. Well casing must be protected from damage and meet minimum extension requirements. Well casing must be protected from damage and	STATE OF OREGON W	ELL INFORMATION FORM NTY CLERK'S OFFICE)
Mailing Address:	Pursuant to ORS 537.788, owners of property on which a and/or alteration of a new well or upon property transfer, records at the appropriate County Clerks Office. Either	well is located shall, within 60 days following the construction of the following information in the property deed
Mailing Address:	Property Owner Name(s): Iss The Sans	7
Well Identification Number (or legal description): M. 12-15. Well Identification Number(s): L65277 Rights and Responsibilities: Oregon law finds that ownership and the rights to reasonable control of water within this state belongs to the public to be managed by the Water Resources Department. Most uses of water require a water right (issued by the Water Resources Department. However, state law some uses of groundwater without benefit of a water right. Closured the Department of more information. The Water Resources Department cannot got the presence of water in the desired amount on a specific property. In addition to the above, owners of properties on which a well is located are responsible for maintaining that well in a proper manner. Some basic required is the few. I. All wells shall be maintained in a condition where they are not a threat to public leath or safety, a source of contamination, or a waste of the groundwater resource. 2. All wells shall be securely covered to prevent any foreign substance from entering the well. 3. All wells shall be securely covered to prevent any foreign substance from entering the well. 4. Well casing must be protected from damage and meet minimum extension requirements. 5. Wells may only be permanently abandoned by a license and bonded well construction or a landowner with a valid permit and bond. Well abandonment must be carried out in accordance with state rules. If you would like further information about water rights, minimating / abandoning your well, or with to receive a copy of the administrative rules conceved the further information about water rights. The properties and bonded well construction or a landowner with a valid permit and bond. Well abandonment must be carried out in accordance with state rules. If you would like further information about water required as a properties of the property of the administrative rules conceved and the above describing may basic rights and responsibilities related to well ownership. Signature of Property Owner(s)	Mailing Address: 10 308 h V LL Klannats	i Keir. 1760/
Rights and Responsibilities: Oregon law finds that ownership and the rights to reasonable control of water within this state belongs to the public to be managed by the Water Resources Department. Most uses of water require a water right issued by the Water Resources Department. However, state law some uses of groundwater without benefit of a water right. Contact the Department for more information. The Water Resources Department earnot gus the presence of water in the desired amount on a specific property. In addition to the above, owners of properties on which a well is located are responsible for maintaining that well in a proper manner. Some basic require are listed below: 1. All wells shall be equipped with an access port or airline so that static water level information and the determined at any time. 2. All wells shall be equipped with an access port or airline so that static water level information can be determined at any time. 3. All wells shall be quipped with an access port or airline so that static water level information can be determined at any time. 4. Well casing must be protected from damage and meet minimum extension requirements. 5. Wells may only be permanently abandoned by a licensel and bonde well construction or a landowner with a valid permit and bond. Well would like further information about water rights, maintaining your well, or with to receive a copy of the administrative rules concelled early of the concentration, please contact the Oregon Water Resources Department by phone at (503) 378-8155, or by mail at 158 12th Street NE, Salem, OR 97301-4172. I have read the above describing my basic rights and responsibilities related to well ownership. State of Control of Property Owner(s) Property O	Deed Recording Number (or legal description):	12~11345
managed by the Water Resources Department. Most uses of water right is Contact the Department for more information. The Water Resources Department cannot go the presence of water in the desired amount on a specific property. In addition to the above, owners of properties on which a well is located are responsible for maintaining that well in a proper manner. Some basic required is the below. I. All wells shall be equipped with an access port or a first of the groundwater resource. 2. All wells shall be equipped with an access port or a first os that static water level information can be determined at any time. 4. Well casing must be protected from damage and meet minimum extension requirements. 5. Wells may only be permanently abandoned by a licensed and bonded well constructor or a landowner with a valid permit and bond. Well abandonnent must be carried out in accordance with state rules. If you would like further information about water rights, maintaining / abandoning your well, or with to receive a copy of the administrative rules conceved on places. If you would like further information about water rights, maintaining / abandoning your well, or with to receive a copy of the administrative rules conceved on the construction, please contact the Oregon Water Resources Department by phone at (503) 378-8155, or by mail at 158 120 Street NF., Salem, OR 97301-4172. I have read the above describing my basic rights and responsibilities related to well ownership. Signature of Property Owner(s) Analysis and responsibilities related to well ownership. Signature of Property Owner(s) Analysis and responsibilities related to well ownership. Seal, if any: OFFICIAL SEAL SEAL SEAL SEAL SALLY A. Well of Commission expires MAY12, 2007 My commission expires May12, 2007 My commission expires May12, 2007
State of Property Owner(s) N. 1. M.	managed by the Water Resources Department. Most uses of water require a some uses of groundwater without benefit of a water right. Contact the Department presence of water in the desired amount on a specific property. In addition to the above, owners of properties on which a well is located are are listed below: 1. All wells shall be maintained in a condition where they are not a the groundwater resource. 2. All wells shall be securely covered to prevent any foreign substance. 3. All wells shall be equipped with an access port or airline so that state. 4. Well casing must be protected from damage and meet minimum extended by a licensed and bond abandonment must be carried out in accordance with state rules. If you would like further information about water rights, maintaining / aband well construction, please contact the Oregon Water Resources Department by 97301-4172.	responsible for maintaining that well in a proper manner. Some basic requirement from entering the action of contamination, or a waste of the efformentering the well. The water level information can be determined at any time. It is tension requirements. The well constructor or a landowner with a valid permit and bond. Well loning your well, or with to receive a copy of the administrative rules concerning the phone at (503) 378-8155, or by mail at 158 12th Street NE, Salem, OR
State of Sta
Before Me: OFFICIAL SEAL SALLY A. WEST NOTARY PUBLIC-OREGON COMMISSION NO. 368564 MY COMMISSION EXPIRES MAY 12, 2007 My commission expires	State of Danieta, County of Blancate This instrument was acknowledged before me on Justice (name of person(s)) as	unority - if applicable) of(na
	Before Me: Saley a. Alest	Seal, if any: OFFICIAL SEAL SALLY A. WEST NOTARY PUBLIC-OREGON COMMISSION NO. 368564
	My commission expires May 12, 2007	- Reconstruction of the second

ZICA