KNOW ALL BY THESE PRESENTS that I, Eugene Engband have made, constituted and appointed and by these presents do make, constitute and appoint Joy Matthews my true and lawful attorney, for me and in my name, place and stead and for my use and benefit, to make all decisions in case of my incapacity in regards to all finances, real estate and medical care.

GIVING AND GRANTING unto my attorney the full power and authority to do and perform each and every act and thing whatsoever requisite and necessary to be done, as fully, to all intents and purposes, as I might or could do if personally present, hereby ratifying and confirming all that my attorney lawfully does or causes to be done by virtue hereof.

This power shall take effect on the date next written below.

My attorney and all persons unto whom these presents shall come may assume that this power of attorney has not been revoked until given actual notice either of such revocation or of my death.

In construing this instrument, and where the context so requires, the singular includes the plural.
