GIVING AND GRANTING unto my attorney the full power and authority to do and perform all and every act and thing whatsoever requisite and necessary to be done in and about the premises, as fully to all intents and purposes as I might or could do if personally present, with full power of substitution and revocation, hereby ratifying and confirming all that my attorney shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue of these presents, and specifically acknowledging that any change in the status of my mental competency, or its deterioration, absence, or failure, whether temporary or permanent, shall not affect, diminish, or make null and void the effectiveness and validity of this instrument.

This power shall take effect (delete inapplicable phrase):

(a) on the date next written below;

(b) on the date I am adjudged incompetent by a court of proper jurisdiction.

If neither phrase is deleted, this power shall take effect on the date next written below.

My attorney and all persons unto whom these presents shall come may assume that this power of attorney has not been revoked until given actual notice either of such revocation or of my death.

In construing this instrument, and where the context so requires, the singular includes the plural.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand on September 28, 2006.
