THIS INDENTURE, made this 13th day of February 2008 between Erik Van Hagen, hereinafter called trustee, and U.S. Bank N.A., hereinafter called the second party;

WITNESSETH:

RECITALS

Camco Development and Construction Inc., as grantor, executed and delivered to U.S. Bank Trust Company, N.A., as trustee, for the benefit of U.S. Bank N.A., as beneficiary, a certain deed of trust dated April 19, 2006, and recorded on April 24, 2006, in Volume M06 at Page 07934 in the official real property records of Klamath County, Oregon. In that trust deed, the real property therein and hereinafter described was conveyed by the grantor to the trustee to secure, among other things, the performance of certain obligations of the grantor to the beneficiary. The grantor thereafter defaulted in performance of the obligation secured by the trust deed as stated in the notice of default hereinafter mentioned, and such default still existed at the time of the sale hereinafter described.

By reason of the default, the owner and holder of the obligations secured by the trust deed, being the beneficiary therein named, declared all sums so secured immediately due and owing. A notice of default containing an election to sell the real property and to foreclose the trust deed by advertisement and sale to satisfy the grantor's obligations was recorded on September 6, 2007, as Instrument No. 2007-15764 in the official real property records of Klamath County, Oregon, to which reference is now made.

After recording said notice of default, the undersigned trustee gave notice of the time for and place of sale of the real property, as fixed by the trustee and as required by law. Copies of the notice of sale were served pursuant to ORCP 7 D(2) and 7 D(3), or mailed by both first class and certified mail with return receipt requested, to the last known addresses of the persons or their legal representatives, if any, named in ORS 86.740(1) and 86.740(2)(a), at least 120 days before the date the property was sold. A copy of the notice of sale was mailed by first class and certified mail with return receipt requested to the last known address of the fiduciary or personal representative, if any, of any person named in ORS 86.740(1), promptly after the trustee received knowledge of the disability, insanity or death of any such person. Copies of the notice of sale were served upon an occupant of the property, if any, described in the trust deed in the manner in which a summons is served pursuant to ORCP 7 D(2) and 7 D(3) at least 120 days before the date the property was sold, pursuant to ORS 86.750(1). If the foreclosure proceedings were stayed and released from the stay, copies of an amended notice of sale in the form required by ORS 86.755(6) were mailed by registered or certified mail to the last known addresses of those persons listed in ORS 86.740 and 86.750(1) and to the address provided by each person who was present at the time and place set for the sale which was stayed within 30 days after the release from the stay. The trustee published a copy of the notice of sale in a newspaper of general circulation in each county in which the real property is situated once a week for four successive weeks. The last publication of the notice occurred more than twenty days prior to the date that the trustee or its agent conducted the sale. The mailing, service and publication of the notice of sale are shown by affidavits and/or proofs of service duly recorded prior to the date of sale in the county records, those affidavits and proofs, together with said notice of default and election to sell and the trustee's notice of sale, being now referred to and incorporated in and made a part of this deed as if fully set forth herein.

The true and actual consideration for this conveyance is $64,101.21.

The trustee or the agent designated by the undersigned trustee, as allowed under ORS 86.755, on February 6, 2008, at the hour of one o'clock (1:00) p.m., in accord with the standard of time established by ORS 187.110, and at the place so fixed for sale, in full accordance with the laws of the State of Oregon and pursuant to the powers conferred upon the trustee by the trust deed, sold the real property at public auction to the second party for the sum of $64,101.21, the second party being the highest and best bidder at the sale, and that sum being the highest and best bid for the property.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of that sum so paid by the second party by credit bid, the receipt whereof is acknowledged, and by the authority vested in the trustee by the laws of the State of Oregon and by the trust deed, the trustee does hereby convey unto the second party all interest which the grantor had or had the power to convey at the time of grantor's execution of the trust deed, together with any interest the grantor or grantor's successors in interest acquired after the execution of the trust deed in and to the following described real property, to-wit:
