Both the successor Beneficiary and the successor Trustee have elected to sell the real property to satisfy the obligations secured by said Trust Deed and a Notice of Default has been recorded pursuant to ORS 86.735; the default for which the foreclosure is made is Grantor's failure to pay when due the following sums:

ALSO, if you have failed to pay taxes on the property, provide insurance on the property, or pay other senior liens or encumbrances as required in the note and Trust Deed, the beneficiary may insist that you do so in order to reinstate your account in good standing. The beneficiary may require as a condition to reinstatement that you provide reliable written evidence that you have paid all senior liens or encumbrances, taxes and hazard insurance premiums. These requirements for reinstatement should be confirmed by contacting the undersigned Trustee.

Affidavit of Publication

Notice is further given that any person named in ORS 86.753 has the right at any time prior to five days before the date last set for the sale, to have this foreclosure proceeding dismissed and the Trust Deed reinstated by payment to the Beneficiary of the entire amount then due (other than such portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred) and by curing any other default complained herein that is capable of being cured by tendering the performance required under the obligation of the Trust Deed, and in addition to paying said sums or tendering the performance necessary to cure the default, by paying all costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the obligation and Trust Deed, together with trustee's fees and attorney's fees not exceeding the amounts provided by ORS 86.753.

It will be necessary for you to contact the undersigned prior to the time you tender reinstatement or payoff so that you may be advised of the exact amount, including trustee's costs and fees, that you will be required to pay. Payment must be in the full amount in the form of cashier's or certified check.

The effect of the sale will be to deprive you and all those who hold by, through and under you of all interest in the property described above.
