At least thirty (30) days prior to closing, Buyer shall have the right to obtain a written report from a licensed termite inspector stating that there is no termite infestation or termite damage to the property. If there is such evidence, Seller shall remedy such infestation and/or repair such damage, up to a maximum cost of two (2) percent of the purchase price of the property. If the costs exceed two (2) percent of the purchase price and Seller elects not to pay for the costs over two (2) percent, Buyer may cancel this Agreement and the escrow shall be returned to Buyer without penalty or interest.

12. At least thirty (30) days prior to closing, Buyer or their agent shall have the right to inspect all heating, air conditioning, electrical, and mechanical systems of the property, the roof and all structural components of the property, and any personal property included in this Agreement. If any such systems or equipment are not in working order, Seller shall pay for the cost of placing them in working order prior to closing. Buyer or their agent may again inspect the property within forty-eight (48) hours of closing to determine if all systems and equipment are in working order.

13. Between the date of this Agreement and the date for closing, the property shall be maintained in the condition as existed on the date of this Agreement. If there is any damage by fire, casualty, or otherwise, prior to closing, Seller shall restore the property to the condition as existed on the date of this Agreement. If Seller fails to do so, Buyer may (a) accept the property, as is, along with any insurance proceeds due Seller, or (b) cancel this Agreement and have the escrow deposit returned, without penalty or interest.

14. As required by law, the Seller makes the following statement: "Radon gas is a naturally occurring radioactive gas that, when accumulated in sufficient quantities in a building, may present health risks to persons exposed to it. Levels of radon gas that exceed federal and state guidelines have been found in buildings in this state. Additional information regarding radon gas and radon gas testing may be obtained from your county health department."

15. As required by law, the Seller makes the following LEAD WARNING STATEMENT: "Every purchaser of any interest in residential real property on which a residential dwelling was built prior to 1978 is notified that such property may present exposure to lead from lead-based paint that may place young children at risk of developing lead poisoning. Lead poisoning in young children may produce permanent neurological damage, including learning disabilities, reduced intelligence quotient, behavioral problems, and impaired memory. Lead poisoning also poses a particular threat to pregnant women. The seller of any interest in residential real estate is required to provide the buyer with any information on lead-based paint hazards from risk assessments or inspection in the seller's possession and notify the buyer of any known lead-based paint hazards. A risk assessment or inspection for possible lead-based paint hazards is recommended prior to purchase."

16. Seller agrees to provide Buyer with a Real Estate Disclosure Statement (or its equivalent that is acceptable in the State in which the property is located) within five (5) days of the signing of this Agreement. Upon receipt of the Real Estate Disclosure Statement from Seller, Buyer shall have five (5) business days within which to rescind this Agreement by providing Seller with a written and signed statement rescinding this Agreement. The disclosures in the Real Estate Disclosure Statement are made by the seller concerning the condition of the property and are provided on the basis of the seller's actual knowledge of the property on the date of this disclosure. These disclosures are not the representations of any real estate agent or other party. The disclosures themselves are not intended to be a part of any written agreement between the buyer and seller. In addition, the disclosure shall not, in any way, be construed to be a warranty of any kind by the seller. California Additional Disclosure Requirements for sales of residential property: Seller shall provide any required disclosures under applicable California law within 15 days after the signing of this Agreement, including California Real Estate Transfer Disclosure Statement, California Natural Hazard Disclosure Statement, and any additional required disclosures, including (a) local or county disclosures, (b) industrial use disclosures, (c) military ordinance disclosures, or (d) Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act disclosures. Buyer has the right to cancel this Agreement within three (3) days after receipt of each of such disclosures, and have all earnest money or deposits returned. California Additional Required Notice for sale of residential property: The California Department of Justice, sheriff's departments, and police departments serving jurisdictions of 200,000 or more and many other local law enforcement authorities maintain for public access a data base of the locations of persons required to register pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 290.4 of the California Penal Code. The data base is updated on a quarterly basis and a source of information about the presence of these individuals in any neighborhood. The Department of Justice also maintains a Sex Offender Identification Line through which inquiries about individuals may be made. This is a "900" telephone service. Callers must have specific information about individuals they are checking. Information regarding neighborhoods is not available through the "900" telephone service.

17. The parties also agree to the following additional terms:

18. No modification of this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and is signed by both the Buyer and Seller. This Agreement binds and benefits both the Buyer and Seller and any successors and assigns. Time is of the essence of this Agreement. The acceptance of a deed by the Buyer shall be considered full performance of every obligation of the Seller under this Agreement. This document, including any attachments, is the entire agreement between the Buyer and Seller. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Oregon.
