DECLARATION OF ACCESS AND IRRIGATION EASEMENTS

This Declaration of Access and Irrigation Easements (the "Easement Agreement") is entered into as of December 17, 2012, by RLF Running Y Ranch, LLC, a Colorado limited liability company ("RLF").

WHEREAS, RLF is the owner of that certain real property located in Klamath County, Oregon, legally described on Exhibit A attached hereto and incorporated herein by this reference (the "Property");

WHEREAS, RLF desires to establish and create a non-exclusive irrigation easement over and across existing irrigation infrastructure on a portion of the Property, and to establish and create certain non-exclusive access easements to access such irrigation infrastructure, in the locations and on the terms and conditions set forth in this Easement Agreement;

WHEREAS, RLF's intent is to establish the easements set forth herein and to subsequently sell portions of the Property. The owners of all or any tracts, lots, or other portions of the of the Property are referred to herein collectively as the "Parties" and individually as a "Party." There shall be no merger by reason of the fact that RLF or any subsequent owner owns the entirety of the Property.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, RLF hereby declares as follows:

1. Easements.

(a) RLF hereby establishes, for the benefit of, binding upon, and appurtenant to the Property, and all tracts or lots within the Property following any subdivision of the Property: (i) a permanent non-exclusive irrigation easement for running irrigation water through the existing irrigation ditches and infrastructure, and for maintenance and repair of the existing irrigation ditches and infrastructure, to the extent reasonably necessary for farming and associated agricultural uses, over and across that portion of the Property described and depicted on Exhibit B attached hereto and incorporated herein by this reference; together with (ii) permanent non-exclusive access easements for access to such irrigation ditches for purposes of this Easement Agreement, over and across existing roadways on the Property.

(b) The easements set forth in Section 1(a) above are collectively referred to as the "Easement" and the respective portions of the Property as the "Easement Area." The Easement Area includes any ditch roads which run generally along portions of the existing irrigation ditches. The easements granted hereunder may also be used and exercised by a Party's respective employees, agents, tenants, licensees, representatives, contractors and consultants. Each Party is expressly prohibited from entering onto or accessing any other portion of any other Party's portion of the Property, including for the purposes of maintaining, improving, or repairing the Easement Area.

2. Non-Exclusivity of Rights; Non-Interference. The rights granted to each Party hereunder are non-exclusive. Each Party retains all rights to utilize the Easement Area on its portion of the Property for any and all purposes; provided, however, no Party shall grant to any other person any surface or subsurface rights which materially conflict with or interfere with the use of the Easement Area by the other Parties. Specifically, and without limiting the foregoing, each Party agrees not to: (i) prohibit the other Party's access to, through or across the Easement Area; or (ii) construct or install gates, fences or other improvements which block the other Party's access to the Easement Area or passage over or across the Easement Area without providing the other Party the means (e.g., keys) through which to achieve access.

3. Reciprocal Access and Irrigation Easement Agreement. This Easement Agreement is recorded to provide for the establishment and continuation of the Easements in the event of a subdivision of the Property. Accordingly, this Easement Agreement is to be in addition to that certain Reciprocal Access and Irrigation Easement Agreement, recorded April 13, 2012 at Reception No. 2012-003911 in the real property records of Klamath County, Oregon (the "Reciprocal Easement"). All maintenance and improvements to the Easement Area shall be handled in accordance with the provisions of the Reciprocal Easement.

4. Obligations to Run with the Land. The Easement, the rights and obligations of the Parties hereto under the terms and conditions hereof, and the terms, rights, conditions, restrictions and limitations contained herein with respect thereto, shall burden and run with the Easement Area, shall be appurtenant to the Property and any portions thereof, and shall inure to the benefit and use of the Parties, and any successor owner or owners of the Property (or any portion thereof) and its and their successors and assigns. The Easement is also for the benefit of any present and future mortgagees or holders of trust deeds on any portion of the Property and may not be amended, repealed or modified without the written consent of each such mortgagee or beneficiary.

5. No Termination. The Easement shall not be terminated or extinguished, whether by nonuse, abandonment, or for any other reason. No rights against either Party and adverse to the Easement Area shall be acquired by adverse possession or prescription as a result of or arising out of the occupancy, possession, destruction or blockage of the Easement or any portion thereof, or by reason of any other act of any person or entity following the recordation of this Easement Agreement.

6. Enforcement. Enforcement of this Easement Agreement may be by legal proceedings against any Party or other owner or person violating any restriction, covenant, condition or agreement herein contained, either to restrain or enjoin such violation, obtain specific performance, or recover damages; provided, however, that no such covenant or any such similar right or privilege may be enforced by legal action or otherwise by any persons whatsoever except the owners of all or any portion of the Property and their respective successors and assigns. This Easement Agreement is not intended to, nor will it, create any rights or prescriptive rights in the public to the Easement Area.

7. Compliance with Laws; Indemnification. All use of and maintenance of the Easement Area shall be conducted and completed in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. Each owner of any portion of the Property shall indemnify and hold the owners of the remainder of the Property harmless from and against any and all claims, costs, damages, and liability (including costs and attorneys' fees) arising out of any violation of this Easement Agreement or applicable laws by the first party (and their agents, guests, invitees, or assigns), any actions by the first party (and their agents, guests, invitees, or assigns) under this Easement Agreement, or from any bodily injury suffered or property damage occurring as a result of the acts of the first party (and their agents, guests, invitees, or assigns).

8. Payment of Taxes. Each owner shall pay all real property taxes and assessments applicable to its portion of the Property. If any improvements made to the Easement Area are separately assessed by any taxing authority with jurisdiction, the Party that constructed such improvements shall pay such taxes and assessments.

9. Entire Agreement. In the event of any controversy, claim, or dispute relating to this Agreement or the breach thereof, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover from the non-prevailing party the prevailing party's costs and expenses, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

10. Severability. In the event any term or provision of this Agreement shall be held to be unenforceable for any reason whatsoever by any court of competent jurisdiction, such holding shall not invalidate or render unenforceable any other term or provision hereof.

11. No Waiver. The waiver by any owner of a breach of any provision of this Easement Agreement shall not be deemed a continuing waiver or a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision hereof.

12. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, interpreted under and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Oregon.

13. Further Assurances. From and after the execution, delivery and recordation of this Agreement, each Property owner shall cooperate with the other Property owners in taking such actions, executing such instruments and granting such rights as may be reasonably necessary to effectuate the purposes of the parties in entering into this Easement Agreement and to perfect the rights granted hereunder.
