Reference is made to that certain contract for the sale of land by and between Gregory and Cindy Toepfer, as the Sellers, and Jill Caffey, as the Purchaser, dated April 8, 2010, recorded on April 8, 2010, in the records of Klamath County, Oregon, as instrument No. 2010-004311, covering the following described real property, situate in the above mentioned county and state, to wit:

See Attached Exhibit 'A'

There is a default by the purchaser, the purchaser's successor in interest, or other person owing an obligation, in performance of which is required by the contract, with respect to provisions therein which permit forfeiture in the event of default of such provisions. The default by virtue of which this forfeiture is declared is as follows:

40 payments of $186.81 from June 1, 2013 to October 8, 2015	$7,472.40
40 late fees of $9.34	373.60
TOTAL DUE	$7,846.00

By reason of the default, the contract will be forfeited if the Purchaser does not cure the default. The date after which the contract will be forfeited is December 22, 2015. This date affords the Purchaser a period of time to cure the default which is not less than 60 days, if the Purchaser has reduced the unpaid balance to an amount greater than 75 percent of the purchase price.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Contract will be forfeited, and that an affidavit evidencing such forfeiture will be recorded in accordance with ORS 93.930, unless the default complained of is cured on or before the date specified.

This notice of default shall be served pursuant to ORCP 7D(2), and 7D(3), or by both first class and certified mail with return receipt requested, to the last known address of the Purchaser, occupants of the property, and to any person who has caused to corrected filed a duly acknowledged request for a copy of any Notice of Default, or to the legal representative of any such persons. Notices served by mail are effective when mailed.

A copy of this notice, together with one or more affidavits of service or mailing thereof, reciting the dates of service or mailing and the name and address of each person to whom a copy of the notice was mailed or served, shall be recorded in the real property records of Klamath County, and such recording shall constitute constructive notice to all third persons of the pending forfeiture described herein. Should no declaration of forfeiture based upon the notice and affidavit be recorded within one year after the time for cure of the default, and should no extension of time for cure executed by the Seller be received, this notice and its corresponding affidavit shall not be effective for any purpose, nor shall it impart and constructive or other notice to third persons acquiring an interest in the Purchaser's interest in the Contract or the property or any portion of either. Any extension of time to cure, executed by the Seller shall be recorded in the same manner as the original notice and its corresponding affidavit.

This notice shall conclusively be presumed to be adequate, and the statements contained herein correct, unless one or more recipients of this notice notifies the Seller or the Seller's attorney, by registered or certified mail, that such recipient claims the right to a longer period of time in which to cure the default.

Subject to the procedure requirements of the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure, an action may be instituted to appoint a receiver or to obtain a temporary restraining order during forfeiture under the Contract mentioned herein, except that a receiver shall not be appointed if the such property is a single family residence which is occupied at the time this notice is given, as the principle residence of the Purchaser, the Purchaser's spouse, or the Purchaser's minor dependent children.

In construing this notice, the singular includes the plural, the word "Purchaser" includes any successor in interest to the Purchaser, as well as any other person owing an obligation, the performance of which is required by the Contract, and the word "Sellers" includes any successor in interest to the Sellers.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, The Seller has executed this instrument.
