Section 8 Default

8.1 Events of Default. Time is of the essence of this Contract. A default shall occur under any of the following circumstances.

(1) Failure of Purchaser to make any payment within 10 days after it is due.

(2) Failure of Purchaser to perform any other obligations contained in this contract within 10 days after notice from Seller specifying the nature of the default or, if the default cannot be cured within 10 days, failure within such time to commence and pursue curative action with reasonable diligence.

8.2 Remedies of Default. In the event of a default, Seller may take any one or more of the following steps:

(1) Seller may declare the entire balance of the purchase price and interest immediately due and payable.

(2) Seller may foreclose this Contract by suit in equity.

(3) Seller may specifically enforce the terms of this Contract by suit in equity.

(4) With respect to any part of the Property that constitutes personal property in which seller has a security interest, seller may exercise the rights and remedies of a secured party as provided by the Uniform Commercial Code.

(5) If Purchaser fails to make any payment within 10 days after it is due, Seller may elect to impose a late charge. In addition to and not in lieu of any and all other rights and remedies available to Seller. Demand or acceptance by Seller of such a late charge by Seller shall not cure or waive Purchaser's default.

(6) Seller may declare this Contract forfeited and retain the amount of the payments previously made under this Contract.

(7) Seller shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver as a matter of right whether or not the apparent value of the Property exceeds the amount of the balance due under this Contract, and any receiver appointed may serve without bond. - (b) Collect all rents, revenues, income, issues, and profits (the "income") from the Property and apply such sums to the necessary expenses of use, operation, and management;

Before default, Purchaser may operate and manage the Property and collect the income from the Property. In the event of default and at any time hereafter, Seller may revoke Purchaser's right to collect the income from the Property and may, either itself or through a receiver, collect the same. To facilitate collection, Seller may notify any tenant or other user to make payments of rents or use fees directly to Seller. If the income is collected by Seller, then Purchaser irrevocably designates Seller as Purchaser's attorney in fact with full power of substitution and coupled with an interest to endorse instruments received in payment by tenants or other users to Seller in response to Seller's demand shall satisfy the obligation for which the payments are made, whether or not any proper grounds for the demand existed. Seller shall apply the income first to the expenses of renting or collection and the balance (if any) to the payment of sums due from Purchaser to Seller under this Contract.

8.3. Remedies Not Exclusive. The remedies provided above shall be nonexclusive and in addition to any other remedies provided by law.

Section 9. Waiver

Failure of either party at any time to require performance of any provision of this Contract shall not limit the party's right to enforce the provision, nor shall any waiver of any breach of any provision constitute a waiver of any succeeding breach of that provision or a waiver of that provision itself.

Section 10. Successor Interests

This Contract shall be binding on and inure to the benefit of the parties, their successors, and assigns but no interest of Purchaser shall be assigned, subcontracted, or otherwise transferred, voluntarily or involuntarily, without the prior written consent of Seller.

Section 11. Prior Agreements

This document is the entire, final, and complete agreement of the parties pertaining to the sale and purchase of the Property and supersedes and replaces all prior or existing written and oral agreements (including any earnest money agreement) between the parties of their representatives relating to the Property.

S. mail postage prepaid and addressed to the party at the address stated in this Contract or such other address as either party may designate by written notice to the other.

Section 13 Costs and Attorney Fees

13.1 No suit or Action Filed. If this Contract is placed in the hands of an attorney due to a default in the payment or performance of any of its terms, the defaulting party shall pay, immediately on demand, the other party's reasonable attorney fees, collection costs, costs of either a litigation or a foreclosure report (whichever is appropriate), even though no suit or action is filed thereon and any other fees or expenses incurred by the non-defaulting party.

13.2 Arbitration or Mediation; Trial and Appeal. If any arbitration, mediation, or other proceeding is brought in lieu of litigation, or if suit or action is instituted to enforce or interpret any of the terms of this Contract, or if suit or action is instituted in a Bankruptcy Court for a United States District Court to enforce or interpret any of the terms of this contract, to seek relief from an automatic stay, to obtain adequate protection, or to otherwise assert the interest of Seller in a bankruptcy proceeding, the party not prevailing shall pay the prevailing party's costs and disbursements, the actual cost of a litigation or foreclosure report, and such sums as the court may determine to be reasonable for the prevailing party's attorney fees connected with the trial and any appeal and by petition for review thereof.

13.3 Definitions. For purposes of this contract, the term attorney fees includes all charges of the prevailing party's attorneys and their staff (including without limitation legal assistants, paralegals, word processing, and other support personnel) and any post petition fees in a bankruptcy court. For purposes of this Contract, the term fees and expenses includes but is not limited to long-distance telephone charges; expenses of facsimile transmission; expenses for postage (including costs of registered or certified mail and return receipts), express mail, or parcel delivery; mileage and all deposition charges, including but not limited to court reporters' charges, appearance fees, and all costs of transcription; costs incurred in searching records; and the cost of title reports or surveyor's reports.

Section 14. Survival of Covenants

Any covenants the full performance of which is not required before the closing or final payment of the purchase price and delivery of the deed shall survive the closing and the final payment of the purchase price and the delivery of the deed and be fully enforceable thereafter in accordance with their terms.

Section 15. Condition of Property

Purchaser accepts the land, buildings, improvements, and all other aspects of the Property in their present condition AS IS, WHERE IS, including latent defects, without any representations or warranties from Seller or any agent or representative of Seller, expressed or implied, except to the extent expressly set forth in this Contract. Purchaser agrees that Purchaser has ascertained from sources other than Seller or any agent or representative of Seller the condition of the Property and its suitability for Purchaser's purposes, the applicable zoning, building, housing, and other regulatory ordinances and laws, and that Purchaser accepts the Property with full awareness of these ordinances and laws as they may affect the present use or any intended future use of the Property, and Seller has made no representations with respect to such condition or suitability of the Property or such laws or ordinances.
