Executed and delivered to the first party a certain trust deed (hereinafter called the first party's lien) on the property, to secure the sum of $40,000, which lien was recorded on ~~June~~ ^{July 25}, 2017 in the Records of Klamath County, Oregon, as Doc. #2017- ~~008290~~ ⁰⁰⁸²⁹⁰

The second party is about to loan $200,000 secured by multiple notes to the present owner of the property, with interest thereon at a rate not exceeding 8.5% per annum. NOW, THEREFORE, for value received, and for the purpose of inducing the second party to make the modification aforesaid, the first party, on behalf of the first party and also on behalf of the first party's personal representatives, successors, and assigns, hereby covenants, consents and agrees to and with the second party and second party's personal representatives, successors, and assigns, that the first party's lien on the property is and shall always be subject and subordinate to the lien about to be delivered to the second party as aforesaid, and that the second party's lien in all respects shall be first, prior and superior to that of the first party, provided always, however, that if the second party's lien is not duly filed or recorded or an appropriate financing statement with respect thereto duly filed within 60 days after the date hereof, this subordination agreement shall be null and void and of no force or effect.

It is expressly understood and agreed that nothing herein contained shall be construed to change, alter or impair the first party's lien, except as hereinabove expressly set forth.
