15. To appoint and employ, with or without compensation, any accountants, attorneys at law, investment counsel, agents, servants or other persons, including their agents and associates, and to dismiss or discharge the same and to appoint or employ any others in their stead as my true and lawful attorneys, to appear and represent me as to all matters covered by this power of attorney, or for any other purpose, including, but not limited to, appearances before the Treasury Department of the United States, the Tax Court of the United States, the United States Court of Claims, or any other court of the United States or the District of Columbia, or any state, municipal or foreign court, and any department or official of the United States government or any state, municipal or foreign government, with full power and authority to such agents and attorneys to do any and all acts convenient or appropriate in connection with such matters, including the specific acts described above, and to substitute attorneys and agents subsequent to the date of such appointment and prior to any revocation thereof, and to delegate and revoke the authority so granted to them.

17. To transfer, assign and convey any property or interest in property which I may own to any trust of which I am a beneficiary and under the terms of which I expressly have the power, exercisable alone or with others, to amend or revoke such trust, whether such trust was created before or after the execution of this power of attorney.

18. To make such gifts as I have regularly made to charitable organizations described in Section 170(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws, and to make gifts to persons (other than my attorney), or for their benefit, as I have regularly made, plus such amounts to my descendants (other than my attorney) as to which my spouse and I may claim a federal gift tax annual exclusion.

19. To communicate and negotiate with all creditors and credit-reporting agencies on my behalf.

20. Finally (without prejudice to and in enlargement of the authority above conferred) to execute each and every instrument, undertake each and every obligation, and to take from time to time any and all action of whatsoever nature and with relation to any matters whatsoever, whether or not specifically mentioned herein, and to exercise in respect thereto as full and complete power and discretion as I myself might or could do.

The powers and authority granted herein shall not be affected, impaired or exhausted by any non-exercise thereof or by any one or more exercises thereof. My attorney shall exercise or fail to exercise the powers and authorities granted herein in each case as my attorney, in my attorney's own absolute discretion, deems desirable or appropriate under existing circumstances. I hereby ratify and confirm as good and effectual, at law or in equity, all that my attorney, and any agents and attorneys appointed by my attorney, and their agents, associates and substitutes, may do by virtue hereof. However, despite the above provisions, nothing herein shall be construed as imposing a duty on my attorney to act or assume responsibility for any matters referred to above or other matters, even though my attorney may have power or authority hereunder to do so.

If any power or authority hereby sought to be conferred upon my attorney should be invalid or unexercisable for any cause or not recognized by any person or organization dealing with my attorney, the remaining powers and authorities given to my attorney hereunder shall nevertheless continue in full force and effect.

This power of attorney shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by subsequent disability or incapacity of the principal or lapse of time, it being my intent that the power granted herein shall continue without interruption until my death unless previously revoked by me or otherwise as provided by law. Any person dealing with my attorney may rely without inquiry upon his certification that this power of attorney has not been revoked by presentment of this document.

I expressly agree that all acts done hereunder in good faith by my attorney, prior to the receipt by my attorney or by any party with whom my attorney has dealt pursuant to this power of attorney of actual notice of revocation of this authority, whether by my death or otherwise, shall be binding upon me and upon my heirs and legal representatives.

No person relying upon this power of attorney in good faith and without actual notice of revocation of this authority shall incur any liability to me or my estate as a result of permitting my attorney to exercise any power or discretion on my behalf granted herein, nor shall any person dealing with my attorney be required to see to the application and disposition of any monies, stocks, bonds, securities or other property paid to or delivered to my attorney, or my attorney's substitute, pursuant to the provisions hereof.

This power of attorney shall be governed by the laws of the State of Arizona and shall be effective from and after the date of execution hereof.

Reproductions of this executed original shall be deemed to be original counterparts of this power of attorney.
