William M. Ganong, OSB No. 782137
Attorney for Seller

This is an attempt to collect a debt and any information received from you will be used for that purpose.

Federal law gives you thirty days after you receive this letter to dispute the validity of the debt or any part of it. If you do not dispute it within that time period, I will assume that it is valid. If you do dispute it by notifying me in writing to that effect, I will, as required by law, obtain and mail proof of the debt to you. If within the same time period you request in writing the name and address of your original creditor, if your original creditor is different from the current creditor, I will furnish you with that information. The law does not require me to wait until the end of the thirty-day period before beginning any foreclosure action to collect this debt. If, however, you request proof of the debt or the name and address of the original creditor within the thirty-day period, which begins with your receipt of this letter, the law requires me to suspend my efforts to collect the debt until I mail the requested information to you. A notice of your rights under the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act is attached hereto.
