OREGON REVISED STATUTES

CERTIFICATION OF TRUST

130.860 UTC 1013. Certification of trust.

(1) A person who is not a beneficiary and who proposes to deal with the trustee of a trust may require that all trustees execute and furnish to the person a certification of trust.

(2) The certification of trust shall contain the following information:

(a) That the trust exists and the date the trust instrument was executed;

(b) The identity of the settlor;

(c) The identity and address of the currently acting trustee;

(d) The powers of the trustee;

(e) The revocability or irrevocability of the trust and the identity of any person holding a power to revoke the trust;

(f) The existence or nonexistence of any power to modify or amend the trust and the identity of any person holding a power to modify or amend the trust;

(g) The authority of cotrustees to sign or otherwise authenticate and whether all cotrustees or fewer than all are required in order to exercise powers of the trustee;

(h) The trust's taxpayer identification number, whether the settlor's Social Security number or an employer identification number;

(i) The manner of taking title to trust property; and

(j) The state, country or other jurisdiction under the laws of which the trust was established.

(3) A certification of trust must be signed or otherwise authenticated by all the trustees.

(4) A certification of trust must state that the trust has not been revoked, modified or amended in any manner that would cause the representations contained in the certification of trust to be incorrect.

(5) A certification of trust need not contain the dispositive terms of a trust.

(6) A recipient of a certification of trust may not require the trustee to furnish the entire trust instrument, but may require the trustee to furnish copies of excerpts from the original trust instrument and later amendments that designate the trustee and confer upon the trustee the power to act in the pending transaction.

(7) A person may require that the certification of trust:

(a) Include facts other than those listed in this section that are reasonably related to the administration of the trust;

(b) Be executed by one or more of the settlors;

(c) Be executed by one or more of the beneficiaries if the certification is reasonably related to a pending or contemplated transaction with the person; and

(d) Be adapted to the person's own standard form, which may be incorporated in an account signature agreement or other account document.

(8) A certification of trust may contain the identity of any successor trustee or trustees and the circumstances under which any successor trustee or trustees will assume trust powers.

(9)(a) A person who acts in reliance upon a certification of trust without actual knowledge that the representations contained in the certification are incorrect is not liable to any person for so acting and may assume without inquiry the existence of the facts contained in the certification. A person does not have actual knowledge that the representations contained in the certification are incorrect solely by reason of having a copy of all or part of the trust instrument.

(b) Any transaction, and any lien created by that transaction, is enforceable against a trust if the transaction is entered into by a person acting in reliance on a certification of trust containing the information set forth in this section without actual knowledge that the representations contained in the certification are incorrect.

(c) If a person has actual knowledge that the trustee or trustees are acting outside the scope of the trust, and the actual knowledge was acquired by the person before entering into the transaction or making a binding commitment to do so, the transaction is not enforceable against the trust.

(10) A person is not liable for acting in reliance on a certification of trust solely because the certification fails to contain all the information required in this section.

(11) This section does not limit the rights of the beneficiaries of the trust against a trustee.

(12) A person's failure to demand or refusal to accept and rely solely upon a certification of trust does not affect the protection provided the person by ORS 130.855, and no inference as to whether the person has acted in good faith may be drawn from the failure to demand or the refusal to accept and rely solely upon a certification.

(13) This section applies to all trusts, whether established under the laws of this state or under the law of another state, country or other jurisdiction.

ORS 130.715 UTC 814. Discretionary powers; tax savings.

(1) A trustee shall exercise a discretionary power in good faith and in a manner that is in accordance with the terms and purposes of the trust and the interests of the beneficiaries. The duty imposed by this subsection is not affected by the grant of discretion in the terms of the trust, even though the terms of the trust provide that the trustee has absolute, sole or uncontrolled discretion or use other words purporting to convey broad discretion.

(2) Subject to subsection (4) of this section, and unless the terms of the trust expressly provide otherwise:

(a) A person other than a settlor who is a beneficiary and trustee of a trust that confers on the trustee a power to make discretionary distributions to or for the trustee's personal benefit may exercise the power only in accordance with an ascertainable standard; and

(b) A trustee may not exercise a power to make discretionary distributions to satisfy a legal obligation of support that the trustee personally owes another person.

(3) A power the exercise of which is limited or prohibited by subsection (2) of this section may be exercised by a majority of the remaining trustees whose exercise of the power is not so limited or prohibited. If the power of all trustees is so limited or prohibited, the court may appoint a special fiduciary with authority to exercise the power.

(4) Subsection (2) of this section does not apply to:

(a) A power held by the settlor's spouse who is the trustee of a trust for which a marital deduction, as described in section 2056(b)(5) or 2523(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, as in effect on January 1, 2006, was previously allowed;

(b) Any trust during any period that the trust may be revoked or amended by its settlor; or

(c) A trust if contributions to the trust qualify for the annual exclusion under section 2503(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, as in effect on January 1, 2006.

ORS 130.720 UTC 815. General powers of trustee.

(1) A trustee, without authorization by the court, may exercise powers conferred by the terms of the trust and, except as limited by the terms of the trust:

(a) All powers over the trust property that an unmarried financially capable owner has over individually owned property;

(b) Any other powers appropriate to achieve the proper investment, management and distribution of the trust property; and

(c) Any other powers conferred by this chapter.

(2) The exercise of a power is subject to the fiduciary duties prescribed by ORS 130.650 to 130.730.

ORS 130.725 UTC 816. Specific powers of trustee.

Without limiting the authority conferred by ORS 130.720, a trustee may do any of the following:

holding or ownership of any trust assets. Money may be borrowed under this subsection from any lender, including a financial institution operated by or affiliated with the trustee. A trustee is entitled to be reimbursed out of the trust property or from property that has been distributed from the trust, with reasonable interest, for an advance of money under this subsection.

(6) Continue operation of any proprietorship, partnership, limited liability company, business trust, corporation or other form of business or enterprise in which the trust has an interest, and take any action that may be taken by shareholders, members or property owners, including merging, dissolving or otherwise changing the form of business organization or contributing additional capital.

(7) Exercise the rights of an absolute owner of stocks and other securities, including the right to:

(a) Vote, or give proxies to vote, with or without power of substitution, or enter into or continue a voting trust agreement;

(b) Hold a security in the name of a nominee or in other form without disclosure of the trust so that title may pass by delivery;

(c) Pay calls, assessments and other sums chargeable or accruing against the securities, and sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights; and

(d) Deposit the securities with a depository or other financial institution.

(8) Construct, repair, alter or otherwise improve buildings or other structures on real property in which the trust has an interest, demolish improvements, raze existing or erect new party walls or buildings on real property in which the trust has an interest, subdivide or develop land, dedicate land to public use or grant public or private easements, and make or vacate plats and adjust boundaries.

(9) Enter into a lease for any purpose as lessor or lessee, including a lease or other arrangement for exploration and removal of natural resources, with or without the option to purchase or renew, even though the period of the lease extends beyond the duration of the trust.

(10) Grant an option involving a sale, lease or other disposition of trust property or acquire an option for the acquisition of property, even though the option is exercisable after the trust is terminated, and exercise an option so acquired.

(11) Insure the property of the trust against damage or loss and insure the trustee, the trustee's agents, and beneficiaries against liability arising from the administration of the trust.

(12) Abandon or decline to administer property of no value or property of a value that is not adequate to justify its collection or continued administration.

(13) Avoid possible liability for violation of environmental law by:

(a) Inspecting or investigating property the trustee holds or has been asked to hold, or property owned or operated by an organization in which the trustee holds or has been asked to hold an interest, for the purpose of determining the application of environmental law with respect to the property;

(c) Declining to accept property into trust or disclaiming any power with respect to property that is or may be burdened with liability for violation of environmental law;

(d) Compromising claims against the trust that may be asserted for an alleged violation of environmental law; and

(e) Paying the expense of any inspection, review, abatement or remedial action to comply with environmental law.

(14) Pay or contest any claim, settle a claim by or against the trust, and release, in whole or in part, a claim belonging to the trust.

(17) Select a mode of payment under any employee benefit or retirement plan, annuity or life insurance payable to the trustee, exercise rights under employee benefit or retirement plans, annuities or policies of life insurance, including exercise of the right to indemnification for expenses and against liabilities, and take appropriate action to collect the proceeds.

(18) Make loans out of trust property. The trustee may make a loan to a beneficiary on terms and conditions the trustee considers to be fair and reasonable under the circumstances. The trustee may collect loans made to a beneficiary by making deductions from future distributions to the beneficiary.

(19) Pledge trust property to guarantee loans made by others to the beneficiary.

(20) Appoint a trustee to act in another state, country or other jurisdiction with respect to trust property located in the other state, country or other jurisdiction, confer upon the appointed trustee all of the powers and duties of the appointing trustee, require that the appointed trustee furnish security and remove any trustee so appointed.

(21) Make a distribution to a beneficiary who is under a legal disability or who the trustee reasonably believes is financially incapable, either:

(a) Directly;

(b) By application of the distribution for the beneficiary's benefit;

(c) By paying the distribution to the beneficiary's conservator or, if the beneficiary does not have a conservator, the beneficiary's guardian;

performance of administrative duties. A trustee may act based on the recommendations of professionals without independently investigating the recommendations.
