ORS 93 961(2) states that a designated beneficiary must be identified by name; "a beneficiary designation **93.953(2)(b) states that an individual may designate one or more "Alternate beneficiaries who take the property only if none of the primary beneficiaries is qualified or survives the transferor."

Teror.

NOTE: ORS 93 provides that Transfer on Death deeds. (a) Transfer only property that the transferor owns at time of death, may not transfer property to designated beneficiaries with right of survivorship, but may designate shares of ownership (93.969); (b) Are always revocable (93.955); (c) Must be recorded before death to be effective (93.961(1)(d)), but need not be delivered to designated beneficiaries (93.963(1)). (d) Transfer property without any warranties or covenants of title (93.969(4)), and subject to all debts of the decedent, as well as to all liens, mortgages and conveyances to which the property may be subject (93.969(2)).
