2. Grantor's Reservations; Restrictions. Grantor hereby specifically reserves to Grantor, and its respective successors and assigns, employees, representatives, contractors, licensees and invitees, the full, free and perpetual right and privilege, in common with Grantee and any third parties that Grantor reasonably chooses, to use the Easement for lawful purposes, so long as such uses do not unreasonably interfere with Easement rights of Grantee described herein. Grantor also reserves the right to gate the Easement so long as Grantees' access remains open and is not unreasonably restricted. If applicable, Grantor will provide Grantee with any necessary access codes and/or keys to unlock or open any gates. Grantee covenants that, in the exercise of the Easement and Grantee's rights under this Agreement, Grantee shall (i) comply in all material respects with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and ordinances and with the terms and conditions of all permits and approvals applicable thereto; (ii) when any actual work is undertaken on or within the Easement, pursue the same diligently to completion in a safe and workmanlike manner; (iii) not construct any structures or place any permanent improvements (including, without limitation, fences, markers, signs, or gates) upon the Grantor Parcel or the Easement, unless otherwise approved by Grantor; (iv) promptly repair any damage caused to the Easement by Grantee or Grantee's heirs, successors, assigns, family members, and invitees use of the Easement and any buildings and improvements (including, without limitation, fences and gates) located on the Easement; and (v) keep the Easement free and clear of all liens, charges, and other monetary encumbrances arising out of the Grantee's use of the Easement.
