Further, the trustee published a copy of said notice of sale in a newspaper of general circulation in each county in which the said real property is situated, once a week for four successive weeks; the last publication of said notice occurred more than twenty days prior to the date of such sale. Compliance with ORS 86.748 is evidenced by affidavit duly recorded in the official records of the country in which the Property is located at least five days prior to the date of sale.
